

till the day of his death to take an active interest in its prosperity.

In conclusion, your Committee would invite the prayerful, liberal, and cordial co-operation of all who love the Lord in this good work. In view of the increased responsibilities resting on us by the opening up of new fields, it becomes the friends of the Society to make greater exertions in the future, that as a Branch we may help to spread the knowledge of the Lord at home and abroad, and through the influence and work of the Spirit, assist in bringing our fellow men from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to the living God.

JAMES HOUGH, Secretary.
