Our Paddlers at Ottawa.

With an honor roll of 32 members in the ranks it was not thought that the Carleton Place Canoe Club could muster up a war canoe crew this season, but they did, and sent down about twenty juniors to take part in the Northern Division meet on the Rideau, and the boys did well, too, leading in the quarter mile race to the finish when the New Edinburgh-Ottawas nosed by them and won by perhaps a yard. It was a great race the Brits and Rideaus all coming in within the boat length. In the minor events the Carleton Place juniors were too new at the business to get a look at the premier positions, and in the half mile war canoe race they kept in it to the last, although finishing in fourth place. The boys had a good afternoon's sport and gained some experiences that will stand to their credit in the future. The combination club won most of the events, the Brits and Rideaus dividing the others between them.

Bonfire Concert at Lake Park.

The bonfire concert gotten up by the ladies at Lake Park and given last Tuesday evening in aid of the Red Cross Society, proved an unique success in every respect. The bonfire was built in the open near the Point whilst the evergreen hedge between Mrs. Murphy's and Mr. McRostie's formed the background for the stage, which was decorated with Chinese lanterns, as were the grounds about, a row of candles on the ground making footlights. There were tables for ice cream, cold drinks and candy, whilst music in abundance was supplied by no less than three machines. The programme proper opened with a children's chorus, "We'll Never Let the Old Flag Fall." The chairman, Mr. J. M. Brown, then introduced the "Summer Girl Minstrels," a company of young ladies who were most appropriately attired for the occasion, and their opening number was "God Save the King." There were choruses, part songs, stories and recitations. The Centre of Attraction being Miss Kathleen Salter, the First and Second End Men being Miss Fluffy and Miss Boardwalk (Queen Allen and Mary McNeely), and Miss Swat-the-Fly (Madeline Murphy) and Mrs. Votes-for-Women (Miss Standen). There were jokes and sallies, and many good old songs. Besides which there were solos by Miss Jessie Simpson, Miss Queenie Allen and Mr. C. C. Brown, and recitations by Miss Jeffers (Aunt Lou), Miss Mary McNeely and Miss Standen. Mr. Chairman read a very interesting letter from Miss Eva Wilson, one of our girls at present nursing in France, telling of the great work of the Red Cross and the need for it all. The net receipts amounted to $70, a nice little contribution to the Red Cross funds. There was quite a large audience, gathered from all sides by vehicles and craft of all descriptions on-land and water.
