Editor's Talk

THIS issue contains the Woman's Supplement which is published on the third week in each month. This feature has found great favour with our readers and is now a permanent part of our programme. There is a journalistic rule which says that no new department should be accounted permanent until it has been a feature for two years. This is only the tenth Woman's Supplement and the aforesaid journalistic rule is deliberately abrogated.

For the present our arrangement as to supplements is that the Country Life Supplement will appear in the first issue of each month and the Woman's Supplement in the third issue.

Next week one of the feature articles will be a defence of the Mormons and Mormonism, by "Janey Canuck," the well-known Alberta journalist and author. Those who were deeply impressed by the wonderful series of articles which Miss Moulton wrote for the "Canadian Courier" last spring are urged to read "Janey Canuck's" answer. Other persons who may be interested in this subject and desire to reply to Miss Moulton or "Janey Canuck" are at liberty to do so.

Our Christmas Number is well under way and will appear early in December. It will be along quite a different line from that adopted in previous Christmas Numbers. Even the cover design is quite unlike anything which has hitherto appeared on the decorative page of the "Courier." The illustrations will also be presented in an entirely different way and on a more extravagant scale than heretofore. Those who desire extra copies of this number to send their friends should order them early. The issue has been prepared with a view to its value as a Christmas souvenir for those who desire to send a Canadian publication to their friends abroad.
