Grease Ball Boogie Band
Wed., Sept. 12, Halifax Forum

In this age of war, strife, famine and Clerasil, it warms the heart to know that there survive five fossils from the fabulous fifties. Yes, Betty Lou, there really is a Grease Ball Boogie Band. They are as authentic as chips and gravy; as old as white socks and Wellingtons; as outrageous as duck tails and jelly rolls and a couple of them even drink Zing straight. Take DUNCAN WHITE for instance who is known as "King Grease". He has brought crowds to frantic frenzies with his stimulating strip-tease and his renditions of the hot hits of the 50's.
