Ottawa, August 13th, 1926.

Dear Mr. Gaunce,

Your letter of the 10th instant reached me this morning, and I have immediately asked our Organisation Office to send you One hundred copies of the Duncan Report; this should go forward today.

I am taking steps to get the information Re: Symington. This may take a day or so, as it is necessary to go through the records, both in the Trade and Commerce and the Justice Departments, but will forward it to you at the first moment it is available.

Yours faithfully,

Private Secretary.

W.G. Gaunce, Esq.,
