Ottawa, 3rd January, 1914.

Sir,-

In the Spring of 1913 the Indians of your Agency were supplied with seed wheat to the value of $240.00, upon the understanding that they would repay the cost from the proceeds of the sale of their crop. You should not lose sight of this matter, but see that the refund is made.

Your obedient servant.

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

Jas. McDonald, Esq.,
Indian Agent,
Griswold, Man.
