

its claim to be a party ready and substantial grievance which is brought remedied by legislation. The vic Government are shown to be wit opposed strongly at every point b elevator people, and by interested sired no change in the existing la ceeded in a systematic and carefu consider every phase of this impor the most effective remedies. While and misrepresented by many who friends of the farmer, but were in r for selfish purposes. The result s great commercial grievance involv producer has ever been taken hold o remedied in so prompt and effective the people of the West under the el