

attendant and friend (who had applied hypnosis up to 1894), estate (a vast sum), was declared by the probate court.
 13-19 July, 1893
 the Porte refuses compensation offered by British, French and others during the massacres in Egypt 13 July, 1893
 Soudanese rebels totally defeated Lieut. col. Martyn, 40 killed, others 4 Aug. 1893 NEWS — Europe. The date of the first column should be 1893, not 1892, respecting the conduct
 gen. Miles publishes his statements of the war office . . . 8 Sept. 1893
 . . . ambassador, leaves London,
 14 Sept. "
 N. SOCIETY. — A national exhibition at the Memorial 12-17 Sept. 1893
 NEWS. — Terrible hurricane, trophic and tidal wave, great loss of property, thousands St. Vincent, Barbadoes, Gua-St. Lucia 10-12 Sept. 1893 opened at the Mansion House, London, Jamaica, 17 Sept.; 2500 men and 1750 from the prince 16,000. 27 Sept. "
La Bourgeois, French liner,
 New York to Havre (160 miles the course and going at great speed in collision, during a dense fog, with the British barque, Comatyskie, off the coast of the Isles of Sable Island, Nova Scotia. Deloncle, 117 passengers, the crew drowned; 165 saved—104 of the crew, and 8 4 July, 1893
 started; 5000 from port, France, to Havre, 10 July; official investigation, Nova Scotia, 12 July; 23 July "
 19 Sept. "
 British steamer, sunk in collision with Spanish steamer;
 22 Sept. "
 1812-25, colonial south Australia, 1839; New Zealand, 1861; Cape, 1856; buried 25 Sept. 1893