

lie?—what by passion?—what by stealing?
&c.

Finally, impress upon their minds, that without sorrow for their sins, God will not forgive them by the sacrament of Penance; and conclude by appealing to their feelings: speak of the love of our suffering Redeemer for them—His particular love for little children—and that He only asks in return that they will love Him, and share His glory and happiness with Him in Heaven.