"The Truce of God."

Poem by Alfred Austin, Poet
Laureate, on the Death of the King.

'A King's bequest'

What darkness deep as wintry gloom
O'ershadows joyous spring?
In vain the vernal orchards bloom,
Vainly the woodlands sing,
Round royal shoud
A mournful crowd
Sees all now left of one but yesterday a king.

Thrones have there been of hateful fame,
Reared upon wanton war;
He we have lost still link his name
With peace at home, afar,
For peace he wrought,
His constant thought,
Being how to shield his realms against strife's baleful star.

So let us now all seek to rest,
From fateful feuds release,
And mindful of his wise bequest
From factious clamors cease,
Treading the path he trod,
The sacred truths of God,
The path that points and leads to patriotic peace.
