

For we know, dear Mother,
We never seek in vain :
Can God refuse to answer
When asked in Mary's name ?

Then beg, O Queen and Virgin
For a love our hearts to fill,
To live alone for Jesus
And to do His Holy Will.

For a faith that naught can conquer,
For a hope in the joys above,
Grace for daily union
In the Sacrament of Love.

'Till life shall be a longing
For the dawn that follows night,
Where earthly trials shall fade before
The rays of Eternal Light.

CARMEL.

Written for the Sentinel.