THE SOME DAY REGRETTER—ARE YOU ONE?

Never do anything that you will some day regret seems to be one of the best known axioms, but how about regretting some things that you did not do? The distinguishing point between what to do and what not to do is the rub. The man who idly rests on his oars and lets the current of the stream, (be it what it may) carry him back, stands but little chance of ever reaching the goal of his ambition. Yet, you yourself are just resting on your oars to-day. Some day, some time, some where, and some how you have been saying that you intend to safeguard your family's interest—their right—by insuring your life against accident. Accidents may and do occur, and you know the proper thing to do is to offset their serious consequences as far as possible by accident insurance. Have you ever carried this good intention of yours out? You admit, "No." Then you come under the class of the some-day-regretter. In every railroad accident there are those that are insured and many uninsured, and railroads are killing at the rate of 26 a day, maiming 237, and there is not an uninsured man to-day but that will some day regret it, possibly when it is too late. Don't be one of them. Buy Accident Insurance and buy now for the by-and-by accident.

If you are of the opinion then that you should insure, should you not set to work in earnest then and figure out the policy you need? Let us have a talk with you in this connection re the Triple Indemnity Policy, issued by the Ocean Accident and Guarantee Corporation, Limited, Traders Bank Building, Toronto. The most liberal policy on the market.

It is concise, grants you probably more privileges than any other form of policy, and is free from all annoying technicalities, and provided that in the event of the loss of life by railroad accident, three times the face value of the policy is payable to your beneficiary. This fact should commend itself to you, and when you consider further that the company is one which lives up to its word to the letter, carrying out to the fullest whatever is agreed upon, it becomes almost imperative that you first investigate the merits of the policy referred to. Think it over and if you decide to dip in your oars and pull up stream to-day, call and see the Ocean Accident & Guarantee Corporation, Traders Bank Building, the very next time you are in that neighborhood and talk it over.—Adv.
