C. W. L. CONVENTION

The Fifth Annual Convention of the Catholic Women's League of Canada will be held at Hamilton, June 8-12, with headquarters at the Royal Connaught Hotel. From present indications the occasion will be marked by the largest attendance at any meeting since the organization of the League five years ago.

Owing to the central position of

Owing to the central position of the Convention city, a very large number of delegates will find it easy of access, while enthusiastic interest in the work will bring repre-sentatives from as far east as Halifax and west as Victoria. A par-ticularly noteworthy fact will be the number of representatives from Junior subdivisions, the organizing of these branches having received especial attention throughout the tion concerning the Company:

The Minnesota & Ontario Paper Company operates in Northwestern Ontario and in Minnesota. It owns Goderich Signal, May 21

The death of William F. Young, a a well-known resident of Colborne township, occurred on Saturday, May 16th, after a long illness. Mr. Young in early childhood came to Canada with his parents from Braemar, Scotland, where he was born seventy-nine years ago. For many years, until laid aside by feeble health, he was a prominent figure in the township. He served for a number of years in the township council and was noted for his Goderich Signal, May 21 and operates great paper, pulp and lumber mills. Newsprint is only one of its products. It owns vast one of its products. It owns vast areas of pulpwood—enough to keep its newsprint machines operating for fifty years. In Ontario alone it owns and is completing its own development of water powers, with a capacity of 95,000 horse power. Not only does it generate power for its own mills but it sells power to the Town of Kenora, and the Kenora mills of the Maple Leaf Milling Company and the Western Canada Flour Mills Company. Finally, it owns and operates over 170 miles of ship council and was noted for his fearless devotion to what he considered the best interests of the township. In religion he was a staunch Catholic, and a member of St. Peter's church, Goderich. He is survived by his wife (formerly Helen Garvey) and a family of three sons and three daughters: Frank, of Loyal; William and Mary, at home; Mrs. Hubert O'Mahony, of Simcoe; Mrs. Arthur Becker, of Detroit, and the Rev. J. J. Young, of Wallaceburg. James Young, of Colborne, John and Henry Young, of Goderich, and Mrs. Agnes Austin, of Kingsbridge, are brothers and sister of the deceased. The funeral was held on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, and the church was crowded by those who had assembled to pay their tribute to the memory of an old friend In religion he was a staunch Cathoowns and operates over 170 miles of steam railway. Assets are $3,798 for every $1,000 Bond. Earnings for many years past have averaged over three times bond interest requirements.
