Mercantile Summary.

BUSINESS during the past week has been quiet, it being generally regarded as secondary to the due and proper celebration of the usual holiday festivities.

THE objection cannot be urged against the programme arranged for the next meeting of the Dominion Board of Trade that it is not comprehensive. Deep and weighty subjects enough are on the boards to occupy the members for a twelvemonth at least. However, the more all these subjects are ventilated the better; too much light cannot be thrown upon the trade interests of this country. Our future welfare is deeply involved in the maintenance of a sound commercial policy.
