

ful Hints for Those Who Are Willing to Learn

Question on Clark

number is a married lady or even an elderly unmarried lady. At all these big balls it is etiquette for a girl to return to her chaperon at the end of each dance.

"Ought to sit in the room while my daughter is receiving young men callers? I don't like to do it, for I always feel so terribly de trop."

"I think it is extremely foolish for any mother to take such a course if her daughters have been well brought up. When a young man calls in the evening the most sensible etiquette prescribes that the mother should come into the room with her daughter to greet the young man and stay for a while talking pleasantly with him and then after half an hour or so she can make some pretext to withdraw and leave the young people to indulge in the chatter natural to their age, unrestrained by her presence."

"Do you think it is proper for girls to dine alone with young men at hotels and restaurants?"

"This is a thing that no thoroughly nice and well brought up young girl is ever allowed to do. She may, if she knows him well, go in the daytime or even early in the evening to some quiet caterer's to eat an ice or something like that but the young girl who is seen dining alone with men in public places is sure to be talked about and has only herself to blame if she is called 'gay' or 'fast'."

Electrified sconces. All new sconces that glimmer, white and waxes from modern sconces. Some of them are hollow tubes of candle shape and appearance, hiding modern electric wiring. And these are so safe, lasting and easily managed that they are rapidly taking the places of the old-fashioned wax sconces.

Novelties in silver. Among the pretty housekeeping conveniences which the Autocrat silverware is an led-tin set in silver deposit on porcelain. An outfit consists of a half dozen each of long handled spoons and half spoons, a lemon squeezer and a sugar dish and spoon and these separate pieces may be used for innumerable purposes in addition to serving the cup which cheers but does not inebriate.

A new book-marker. A welcome little gift to a man or a woman of any age-providing that it is a person having the reading habit. This is the newest thing in book-markers. It is simply a double eight-inch long and two-inch wide strip of pin seal, Morocco or alligator, leather finished along the side edges with heavy machine stitching, and at the top a two-inch cut fringe of matching silk. On both the flat sides of the strip in letters of gold, silver or ebony is the legend, "Here I stopped."

CONSERVATIVES SCORE A SPLENDID VICTORY OVER LIBERALS IN QUEBEC

Seat Held Continually by Liberals for Nearly Half a Century is Wrested From Them in Hotly Contested Election at Chateauguay--Sir Wilfrid Laurier Sustains Another Severe Blow to His Prestige.

ST-EUSTACHE, Que., Oct. 13.—Against the Borden naval proposals, Chateauguay County, which since Confederation forty-six years ago has been represented in Parliament by a Liberal, in the bye-election on Saturday elected Mr. James Morris, Conservative, a resident of the county, by a majority of 144 votes over Hon. Sydney Fisher, of Bromo.

In the Parish of Ormstown, with its five polls, Morris had a majority of 74. The Village of Ormstown gave Fisher a majority of 16, and the four outside polls recorded 90 more for Morris than for his opponent, 75 against a majority of 6 for the late Liberal member in 1891. St. Jean Chrysostome, which includes the Village of Aubrey, the Conservative candidate's home town, recorded 56 majority for Mr. Morris. The same district went against him at the last election. In Howick Mr. Morris was defeated by 21 two years ago, and on Saturday he polled two more votes than Mr. Fisher. On the 21st Sept. 1911, the three polls in the Parish of Chateauguay gave a Liberal majority of 71, while these same polls were carried on Saturday by Mr. Morris by 10, his majority in Chateauguay Basin being 18 and at Woodlands 46. Mr. Fisher having a majority of 45 in Chateauguay Village. Two years ago Mr. Morris' majority in St. Eustache, a mixed English and French speaking centre was 49, and this year 39. The new voters' list, with the one man one vote principle applying, was much smaller than two years ago, which accounted for the loss of ten votes.

The majorities by parishes were: Morris (C.) Fisher (L.) St. Jean Chrysostome, 56 against the Liberal majority of 45. It is asserted that Mr. Bourassa's personal following in the county, which is not of great proportions, voted for Mr. Fisher, while a great number of the great French-speaking Liberals joined the French-Conservatives in supporting Mr. Morris.

Rejoicing Everywhere. From all the towns and villages in the county came messages of congratulation to the new member of Parliament, and word that the festive mood were in progress everywhere. A review of the vote shows that English and French speaking sections alike went strongly for the Government candidate, dashing Mr. Fisher's hopes that the English speaking farmers would be lined up behind him in opposition to what he termed "the nationalist element" in the Conservative party, while he also expected the French-speaking vote to be cast against him.

Lloyd George Makes A Most Notable Speech. Launches Great Campaign Against Landlordism in the Old Land--Some Very Strong Facts and Figures are Adduced by Him.

LONDON, Oct. 13.—The campaign to free British land from landlordism was opened yesterday at Bedford by Chancellor of the Exchequer David Lloyd George, who was accorded a triumphant reception. His address had been heralded in advance by pages of gossip in the newspapers, and the walls of Bedford were placarded with flaming posters calling on the workmen to support the "People's Chancellor." His extraordinary remarks had been taken against the militant Suffragettes and other possible disturbers of the meeting. Barricades had been erected and the local police reinforced, while the fire brigade was in readiness to use its hose should any attempt be made to rush the barriers. Firemen were posted on the roof and in the garret of the hall to spy out the "wild women," who it was suspected would try to repeat the tactics they had previously adopted.

BRANTFORDITES ARE CALLED HOME

Mr. Bennett and Mrs. Hossie Bursar Died Sunday--Mrs. Oxtaby Passed Away.

Mr. J. C. Bennett. Brantford's oldest resident fell peacefully asleep Sunday morning at 6 o'clock. He was born June 10th, 1815, the day after the battle of Waterloo, and was in his 97th year. He was remarkably vigorous until he was 95, but had since failed in health. The deceased came of good old English stock, and his father was a captain in the British army. Mr. Bennett was first destined for a naval career, and he became midshipman on H.M.S. Rattlesnake. In this capacity he went to India, New York, the West Indies, and so on. One of the possessions left by him is a book won as a prize in the naval school at Plymouth, and which has the autograph signature of King William the IV. on the fly leaf. Leaving the navy in early life, he settled near Woodstock, and finally came to Brantford in 1850. For 27 years he was with Mr. Ignatius Cocksbutt, and retired upon securing his patrimony at the death of his father. On that occasion he was presented with a very handsome clock by his father, the Plymouth Brethren, and for 78 years had been an active adherent of that sect. He leaves four children, Mrs. Tremaine, Toronto, W. M. Bennett, city, Mrs. A. C. Battersby, city, and Miss Bennett, whose loving care of her invalid mother and then of her father constituted a touching exemplification of filial devotion.

Laurier May Resign. It is asserted on all sides here that Hon. Sydney Fisher can never get another constituency, and it is even expected that Sir Wilfrid Laurier may shortly resign, this additional blow to his prestige being looked upon as too severe for him to weather.

They Insulted The Mayor. On Saturday night when Mayor Hartman left his store, he walked alongside the Market Square and was told by a peanut vendor that two young men, who were loitering nearby had been stealing his wares.

Unfortunate Fatality. LONDON, Ont., Oct. 13.—Harvey McDowell, a farmer near Westfield, Ontario, 35 years of age, died at six o'clock this morning from a pistol wound received Sunday morning from a revolver in the hands of his little daughter. McDowell had been out Saturday on acoon hunt with a number of friends and upon returning had left the weapon on a table loaded. Sunday morning coming down stairs, he was met by his daughter with the revolver in her hand. Pointing it at her father she laughingly ordered him to throw up his hands and then pulled the trigger. The bullet entered McDowell's head. Medical aid was secured at once, but McDowell gradually weakened, succumbing this morning.

Riddled With Bullets. URBANA, Ill., Oct. 13.—Riddled with bullets and robbed of $2,400, the body of William M. Larry, a merchant of this city, was found here yesterday in a corn field near the house where he had gone to close a real estate deal. Larry had been dead about ten hours when the body was found. He left an estate of about $100,000.

CREW OF THE VOLTURNO BEHAVED VERY BADLY---CAPTAIN WAS HERO

He Showed His Bravery By Subduing Maddened Crew With Revolver---Heart Rending Story Told By an Eye Witness of Friday's Awful Tragedy--Work of Rescuing Made Difficult by High Sea.

LONDON, Oct. 13.—The first detailed story of the burning of the Volturmo and the terrible scenes that followed is told in an aerogram received here Sunday from Arthur Spurgeon, managing director of Cassels, Limited, a passenger on the Carmania. Mr. Spurgeon obtained the story from Arthur Trintepohl, a German commercial traveller, who jumped from the blazing Volturmo on Thursday night and was rescued by a sailor of the Carmania, who risked his own life by going into the sea after Trintepohl.
