WAR A BOON TO ORIENT

India Has Experienced, Says J. H. Crocker.

CHINA FOR ALLIES

J. H. Crocker Spoke at Y. M. C. A. Telling of Conditions in the East.

"Japan is more of a menace to America and to the allied nations than ever before—China to-day is heart and soul with the allies—the war is one of the greatest blessings that India has ever experienced—and all over the East there is a period of transition and instead of doing harm, the war is working out good."

J. Howard Crocker, of Shanghai, China, speaking of the Orient in "War Time" brought this message from the Far East to the Brantford Business Men's Club at a noon-hour luncheon at the Y.M.C.A. yesterday. Mr. Crocker, a former secretary of the local institution, had, for a number of years, been engaged in Y.M.C.A. work in China and is intimately acquainted with the situation in the Orient. He has been summoned back to Canada to engage in war-time work under the direction of the National Council, in training young men in the Y.M.C.A. for overseas and at home. Mr. Crocker desired to go overseas in military work, but the Council, emphasizing the need at home, have prevailed upon him to remain in Canada.

"I suppose," said Mr. Crocker, "you are all interested in the Far East and wondering how the war is affecting us overseas. Japan has faced two alternatives—active participation in the war in conjunction with the allies and greater effort in increasing her own commerce—she chose the latter and is building up a great merchant marine. She is consequently becoming wealthy and is more of a menace to America and to the allied nations than ever before. She chose to make money rather than to make the allies in their combat with Germany. Her young men have also chosen this path."

China afforded a decided contrast to Japan in this respect, declared Mr. Crocker. He said: "China affords a very striking contrast with Japan. The war has taken away much of the support which she formerly had. China is like a great lumbering child learning to walk. China is to-day heart and soul with the allies. At first she was pro-German, but the people are awakening and have swung entirely around in their course. It is one of the greatest events of the century, how China has awakened. She has not ignored the problems confronting her. There was no question in the mind of China why the other nations were fighting when Germany's object became known. "The Chinese people, declared Mr. Crocker, were not ignorant of the blessings of Christianity, but as first could not fathom the purpose of the mission armies in bringing to their wives and children and working the people of that country. However, this attitude had largely disappeared, and during the last year especially the atmosphere had changed and the Chinese were now recognizing the real value of the movement, and were even assisting materially in the extension of the work. The churches and missions were also benefitting, and the people were becoming more self-supporting than before."

DISABLED SAILORS AND SOLDIERS—What every man should know. That the fullest information with regard to his particular case can be obtained from the Officer Paying Imperial Pensions, Ottawa, Ontario. That the funds available are not charitable funds, but funds provided by the Imperial Government. That every man disabled by War Service has a right to a pension or gratuity. That he has a right to the most careful and effective treatment free of charge. That if he requires an artificial limb, it will be supplied and maintained in good order free of charge. That if his disability prevents him from returning to his old trade, he will receive free training for a new one. That unless a man claims a pension based on his former earnings, no account is taken of his earnings or earning capacity, or of the extent to which this may be improved by any training that may be given to him. That no permanent pension will be reduced because a man has accepted training. That while he is being trained he will receive additions to his pension for the support of his family. That neither training nor training will cost him a penny. That he will be looked after if he suffers from illness at any time as a result of his service.

D. S. Vanfleet Among Missing

Confirming the previous word that Gunner D. S. Vanfleet was missing, his parents have received the following letter:—

France, Nov. 17, 1917

Dear Mr. and Mrs. VanFleet, We are extremely sorry to have to confirm the official report which you have no doubt received, that your son David, is missing; but we hope that it may be a source of comfort to you and the members of the family to know that we, who worked and chummed with him have done all that it is possible to do to locate him.

David was last seen by Lieut. McCaul, helping back one of our signallers, who had been wounded, towards a dressing station, after which no trace has been found of either, though the neighborhood has been carefully searched.

With you we miss him keenly for "Van" had been with us through training, and the many trying experiences here, proving himself in every time of need a courageous and true friend.

We wish to extend to you and members of the family, our sincere sympathy and hope that your sorrow may be lightened by being shared with us.

Sincerely,
The 40th Battery Signallers.

Protection!

We do not attempt to restore sight, but we do improve the vision. You should for your own protection, have your eyes looked into by an expert optometrist so you can see clearly. A scientific examination and, correctly, fitting glasses does the business.

EVERYBODY NEEDS PURE, RICH BLOOD

Pure blood enables the stomach, liver and other digestive organs to do their work properly. Without it they are sluggish, there is loss of appetite, sometimes faintness, a deranged state of the intestines, and, in general, all the symptoms of dyspepsia.

Pure blood is required by every organ of the body for the proper performance of its functions.

Hood's Sarsaparilla makes pure blood, and this is why it is so successful in the treatment of so many diseases and ailments. Its acts directly on the blood, ridding it of scrofulous and other humors. It is a peculiar combination of blood-purifying, nerve-toning, strength-giving substances. Get it today.
