Half-Acre Garden Gives Big Returns

You can make on an average $44 net on a half-acre garden on your farm. Can you make as much on a half-acre in any other way? The thing has been worked out by the Illinois Experiment Station. After five years, this station found that the average gross income from its half-acre garden was $74.85. With a labor cost of $25.71 and expenditures for seeds, plants, and insecticides of $5.08, the net return was $44.06. Here is what the Illinois garden produced in its last year:

Onions, green 36 dozen, ripe 2 bushels; asparagus, 104 pounds; radishes, 103 dozen; lettuce, 22 baskets; turnips, green 5 baskets, early 10 dozen, late 2.6 bushels; rhubarb, 34 pounds; spinach, 21 baskets; peas, 11 baskets; beets, green 8 baskets, early 15 dozen, late 8.9 bushels; cabbage, early 108 heads, late (large) 24, late (small) 24; beans, string 16 pecks, lima 14 pecks; early potatoes, 5 bushels; parsley, supply; cauliflower, early 25, late 10; carrots, early 24 dozen, late 7 bushels; squash, summer 93, winter 330 pounds; sweet corn, 47 dozen; tomatoes, ripe 25 bushels, green 7 bushels; cucumbers, slicing 387, pickles 76; muskmelons, 1,185 pounds; watermelons, 2,063 pounds; egg plant, 41 fruits; peppers, 4 pecks; parsnips, 3.4 bushels; salsify, 1.3 bushels; winter radishes, 3.1 bushels; celery, 20 dozen.

Corning Beef in the Home.

The pieces of beef commonly used for corning are the plate, rump, cross ribs, and brisket, or in other words the cheaper cuts of meat. The loin, ribs, and other fancy cuts are more often used fresh, and since there is more or less waste of nutrients in corning, this is well. The pieces for corning should be cut into convenient-sized joints, say 5 or 6 inches square.

Base Ball

The Waterdown Juniors, under the able management of Mr Lovejoy have entered the Junior City League and will play their first official game at Waterdown on Saturday, June 2, with the Hotspurs of Hamilton. The officials of the H. A. B. A. will be on hand, and it is expected that Reeve Smith will be there to pitch the first ball and Councillor Speck to receive it. Everybody turn out and help boost the boys to victory.

At Rest

The funeral of Thomas Mann took place on Sunday afternoon from his late residence on Dundas street and was attended by a large number of friends in the village and vicinity. Rev. C. L. Poole conducted a very impressive service at the home of the deceased. Interment was at the Baptist Church Cemetery, Westover, where the Rev. Mr. Hains officiated at the grave. The pallbearers were three brothers, Fred, Arthur and William Mann, and three brothers-in-law, Fred Poole, James Ing and Thomas Darling.

Mr. Mann was well known and highly respected. He was 57 years of age and his sudden death is much regretted. He is survived by his widow and one son, Harold, who buried his wife two weeks previous, and two daughters, Mrs. Wilbert Chappel and Mrs. Harry Chappel, 3rd concession, West Flamboro.

Father's Day

Canadian Neckwear Manufacturers, co-operating with a similar movement in the United States, are promoting a Father's Day for June 17th, 1923. This is patterned after the Mother's Day that has been so successful for many years and was promoted by the florists.

Popular imagination is demanding that some recognition be made of father's share in the burden of the work-a-day world. With no thought in the world of robbing mother of the cherished place she occupies in the hearts of every daughter and son in the broad universe, little children are beginning to ask, "Why isn't there a Daddy's Day?" A number of letters have appeared in the press lately—some from little children, some from older children of the fairer sex who know that father had a place in laying the foundation and building the structure of the home—asking why there shouldn't be a Father's Day and suggesting that one day out of 365 be set aside for him.

And why shouldn't there be a Father's Day? Has he not endured the heat and burden of the day too? Has he not been inspired by the same high motives as mother in giving his sons and his daughters a better chance in the world than he had? Has he not harried upon his shoulders heavy burdens of responsibility, endured anxieties, fought his way through difficulties and made innumerable sacrifices for those dependent upon him? There is no one who realizes this better than mother, daughter and son. That is why popular imagination is demanding a Father's Day.

Women's Institute

The regular meeting of the Waterdown Women's Institute will be held at the home of Mrs. W. G. Horning on Tuesday afternoon, June 19th at 2.30. A large attendance is requested as the Government speaker, Miss Powell, will address the meeting. The Millgrove Branch will provide a musical program. A very cordial invitation is extended to all the ladies of the community who are interested in our motto "For Home and Country."
