RECEPTION FOR CORPORAL FOSTER

On Monday evening last about one hundred and fifty people gathered at the hall at Greenwood to welcome Corporal Zebina Foster home from Overseas. (He was injured in the discharge of his duty and has been in hospital over three months.)

The hall was beautifully decorated with flags, etc. Mr. Geo. Meister was appointed chairman for the evening. Patriotic choruses were sung, speeches were given by Revs. E. H. Howe and Hartette, Messrs. McKenna, Marshall, Nelly and Cropley, and the enjoyment of the evening was rendered three selections. The Rev. E. H. Howe sang a duet in response to an encore on the guitar and mandolin. Mr. Albert Tutts, of Kingston Village, gave one of his comic readings and responded to an encore.

Corporal Foster, being called on, after thanking those present for the honor they had given him, gave a very interesting talk on what he had seen and heard while Overseas. After giving three cheers for "Binney" the meeting broke up by singing "God Save the King" Register.

$17,000 FROM SMALL TOWN.

The "Maritime Merchant," in discussing the mail order competition, in its last issue, states that in a certain small Provincial town, the astounding sum of $17,000 passed through the local Express Office, and doubtless the total amount sent out from the community was easily double this, as most people buy Post Office Money Orders. The time has arrived when some co-operative effort must be made to make the home people realize what an injustice it is to their local merchants, their town, country and Province, this habit of sending money away.
