STANDS HEAD AND SHOULDERS ABOVE ALL.

LONDON, Feb. 13—President Wilson stands head and shoulders above all others as the spokesman of the Allied peoples, in the opinion of the Manchester Guardian, mainly because he is able to keep firmly and constantly in view the reasons why America came into the war. The newspaper contracts the President's address to Congress with the official report on the outcome of the Supreme War Council at Versailles and instances the various times in which Mr. Wilson has come forward to remedy "our shortcomings, take up dropped stitches and repair all too palatable lapses of our own and Allied diplomacy," and has done it with conspicuous and admirable effect.

President Wilson, says the Guardian, finds himself in substantial agreement with Court Czernin, Foreign Minister, but the President's criticism of Court Von Hertling, the German Imperial Chancellor, "frank as it is penetrating, leaves him in no doubt as to the attitude of the United States towards the methods he represents and the war aims he has fathered."

UP TO DATE THE TOTAL NUMBER OF MEN PUT IN KHAKI IS ONLY 30,248.

OTTAWA, February 13—Detailed official figures as to the results of the operation of the Military Service Act, so far, show that nominally 30,248 draftees have been obtained out of the hundred thousand aimed at under the Act. This 30,248 is made up of 5,548 men who were called out by the Proclamation of October 13th, last as being included in class I and who joined various branches of the volunteer army without waiting to be ordered out, 7,914 who were ordered to report or about to be ordered during the present month and 16,786 men who have actually joined units for duty in pursuance of the order.

Strictly speaking the results to date in regard to the actual enforcement of the Act, in so far as its main object is the securing of reinforcements for infantry, should be confined to the 16,786 who have actually been put in khaki and the 7,914 now in process of being drafted. The men who joined in advance of being ordered to do so, for the most part joined branches of the service other than infantry.

3821 Are In Default.

In addition to the men who have actually reported or are now reporting there are 3,821 who are still classed as absentees. Some of these are being discovered in units in districts other than those in which they were ordered to join, but the majority are of the class for whom the military police are now looking.

At the end of the present month it is probable that the aggregate number brought to the colors, through the compulsion of the Act will be between 27,000 and 28,000. This represents five months of the working of the Act since assent was given on August 29th.

CARE OF THE BROOM.

Now that brooms are so high it behooves us to care for them well, so they will last longer. Put straw part in boiling water and let it remain there till water is cold, then put it out in the open air until it becomes dry. When ready to use it dip it into water. Wetting the broom adds to its usefulness and is better for the carpets. Wash days dip the broom in hot soapsuds, letting it remain only a minute. It makes the straw tough and pliable.

THINGS TO REMEMBER IN 1918.

- Let us learn to love and protect the birds and their nests, for birds are man's helpers.
- Let us protect the cats and dogs from ill treatment, give them food and water and a warm place to sleep in. They like a gentle touch and kind words.
- Make the horse comfortable. Do not use the overhead check or any tight checkreins. Never jerk, kick, whip, overload, or overwork him.
- Do not fish or hunt for sport or use steel or other cruel traps. Try never to cause needless pain to any living creature.
- Do nothing to hurt the feelings of anyone.
- Do all you can to make others happy.
- When you see any creature abused, earnestly but kindly protest against such abuse.
- Try to treat every living creature as you would like to be treated if you were that creature.—Our Dumb Animals.

WORTH THE COST OF THE WAR.

I suppose not many fortunate by-products can come out of a war, but if the United States can learn something about saving out of this war it will be worth the cost of the war; I mean the literal cost of it in money and resources. I suppose we have several times over wasted what we are now about to spend. We have not known that there was any limit to our resources; we are now finding out that there may be if we are careful.—President Wilson.

JUDGE—It seems to me I've seen you before.
Prisoner—You have, my lord. I used to give your daughter singing lessons.
Judge—Fourteen years!

A CUT.

(Florida Times-Union)
"What a nice lot of books you have, Mr. Newrich."
"Ah, yes; they are my best friends."
"Oh, I see—is that why you never cut them?"

To clean copper or brass, put some fine salt on a plate, dip into it a cut lemon and rub on metal. The strong acid will remove the worst stain.

A gentle man was walking down the street the other day with his friend Jackson, when they met a clergyman. The reverend gentleman, though possessed of a large brain, has but a diminutive body to support it. Quite recently he had united himself, for good or ill, to a buxom widow. The minister blushed a little as the two friends passed by him.
"What is the meaning of that,
Jackson?" asked his companion.
"Well, you see," was the reply, "we had a party at the minister's shortly after he was married. I was called upon to make a speech. You know you are expected to be humorous on such occasions, so I referred in a casual way to the minister as the widow's mite.
He has acted strangely ever since."
