Midsummer Clearing

Our motto has always been to keep all the short ends of dry goods and odd pairs of shoes sold out, and thus keep our stock clean, new and complete.
Following above plan, we are offering the balance of our Muslins, Lawn Waists, Cambrie Underwear, etc., at specially low prices.
We have several lots of Ladies and Misses Oxford Shoes, in which the sizes have become broken and to clean the odd sizes we offer $1.50, $1.40, $1.35 and $1.25 shoes at $1.00; $1.00 Oxfords at 75c.
Try us for Shoe Dressing. Our stock is very complete in both liquid and paste dressings in all the different makes—black, tan, chocolate and white.

A rain-coat lost in Athens is advertised this week.
Mr Claude Gordon of Montreal was a visitor in Athens on Sunday.
Miss Rose Weeks of Ottawa is this week a guest of Miss E. Hayes.
Born—In Athens, on Tuesday, July 14, to Mr and Mrs Allie Simes, a daughter.
Miss Katie Beamish of Merrickville is this week the guest of Miss Belle Earle, Athens.
Born—At Lacombe, Alberta, on Friday, July 10, to Mr and Mrs Morley G. Brown, a son.
Miss Belle Earle has returned home after spending a week with friends at Merrickville.
Miss Gertrude Brook of Montreal is a guest of Miss Mabel Slack at her home here.
Miss Anna V. Barber of Brockville honours at the recent Toronto Normal School examinations.

Miss Mollie Stinson is visiting friends in Westport.
Mr O. E. Robinson of Boston is spending a vacation of two weeks here. Tercentenary stamps were placed on sale last week and are now in general use.
Mr C. C. Slack and daughter, Miss Mabel, of Montreal are home for vacation.
Born—At Glen Morris, on Wednesday, July 15, to Mr and Mrs C. B. Howard, a son.
Mr J. E. Burchell has been spending a few days at Cardinal with Mrs Burchell and family.
The raspberry crop has not turned out well and all offered here have sold at from 8c to 10c per lb.
Mr and Mrs J. A. Shipman and children of Lyn spent Sunday at the home of Mr and Mrs G. A. McClary.
Mr Arthur Fisher, B.A., who has spent several years at White Horse in the Yukon District, is home for vacation.
Reserve Monday, August 3, for the picnic of the merchants and clerks of Brockville at Delta Park. It will be a great day.
Mr Kenneth McClary was for several days last week a guest at the island home of Mr and Mrs Sherman Coon at Delta Lake.
A local clergyman says we hear too much about church members in good standing and not enough about church members with good motion.
Miss Lillian Reynolds of Cornwall, a student at Queen's University, is in Athens this week, a guest of Mrs H. R. Knowlton and other friends.
There will be no service in the Athens Baptist church on Sunday next, the pastor, Rev W. N. Scott, taking service in Brockville on that day.
Miss Rachel Mackie and Miss Maude Wiltsse were among those successful in passing the recent examinations at Toronto Normal School.
Messrs Pruner and Winstanley, of Pruner & Co., Contractors, Morrisburg, were in Athens this week, investigating our granolithic sidewalk proposition.
Miss Irma Culbert has returned home from her sojourn in the Catskill Mountains, greatly improved in health. Her brother, Carmen of New York, accompanied her home.
Mr Harold Moffatt of North Augusta, a popular graduate of the A.H.S. of '07, now of Winnipeg, called on friends in Athens on Monday and was warmly welcomed.

The beautiful art glassware on display at the grocery of John S. Moore is greatly admired by all who see it.
Mrs Jas. F. Gordon, under treatment at Brockville General Hospital, underwent a serious operation on Monday.
Brockville's lacrosse team is evidently playing out of its class. Its latest defeat was 6 to 0 in a game at Perth.
Miss Lillian Blackburn has returned to the home of Mr and Mrs G. A. McClary from Phillipsville where she had been ill for some weeks.
Mr Kinch E. Redmond of New York joined his wife and daughter here last week and will remain until the latter part of August.
There should be some "swearing off" done in the vicinity of Gananogue. According to the Journal, two farmers killed a snake near that town which measured nine feet in length.
Harold Dowaley, only son of J. K. Dowaley, K. C., of Prescott, was drowned in the Montreal River by his canoe upsetting. He was 22 years of age, a student of mining engineering at Queen's.
Elgin street north (as well as south) is one of the prettiest streets of our village, but its beauty would be greatly enhanced by the free use of a saw on the lower limbs of the shade trees. Wake up, climb up, trim up!

New potatoes are selling in Brockville at from 50c to 60c per peck.
Ice Cream imported from Wright's Brockville—at Maude Addison's.
Next Thanksgiving Day is to be held on Monday instead of Thursday.
Mr W. T. Hands of Perth has been elected Masonic D.D.G.M. for St. Lawrence District.
Misses Nellie and Ethel Brown have gone to Metcalfe to spend vacation with their parents.
Mrs J. H. Ackland was one of the chaperons at the modelite reunion held at Delta last week.
Miss Annie Moffatt, North Augusta, is in Athens this week, the guest of Mrs Melvin Milroy.
Mrs G. F. Blackwell and little son of Lindsay are visitors at the home of Mr and Mrs Irwin Wiltsse.
Miss Esther Owen left last week to join her grandmother, Mrs Merrick, in a visit with friends at Toronto.
Epworth League Monday evening. Topic, Some of the great home missionaries. Leader, Miss Dora Klyne.
Mr and Mrs N. K. Benedict have spent the past week at Addison, guests of Mr and Mrs O. P. Arnold.
Mr C. J. Banta, Mrs Banta and Miss Banta of New York arrived last week at their island home, Charleston Lake.
On Sunday morning the congregation of the Methodist church heard with pleasure a solo sung by Mrs Blackwell of Lindsay.
Cheese ruled at 11c in Brockville on Thursday, an advance of 3c over last week. As high as 11 15-16c was paid for some lots.
Miss Mollie Robinson has been seriously ill for several days with pneumonia. Mrs Robinson is also ill and a trained nurse is attending them.
The Athens-Brockville barrier race, for which Mr A. E. Donovan, M.P.P., has donated a beautiful cup, is to be held on Labor Day. Of course, the race will end in Athens.
The Perth Expositor, a warm supporter of the Whitney government, in referring to the abolition of model schools, says: "It is very doubtful that the movement is a good one and in the interests of education."
One of the most daring of the series of burglaries that have taken place in Brockville recently was perpetrated on Tuesday of last week. The manager of R. Neil's shoe store was eating his dinner in the back of the store when the thief entered by a trap door and stole $90.00 from the till.
The village council met on Tuesday evening to deal with tenders for granolithic walks. The figures submitted by the different firms were carefully considered and the contract was awarded to Pruner & Co. of Morrisburg at 15c per square foot, which is thought to be a reasonable figure, in view of the difficulty of getting suitable material here.
The committee in charge of the Garden Party at Charleston on July 18th wish to further acknowledge substantial contributions to the Wright Memorial Fund from A. E. Donovan, M. P. P., J. R. Dargavel, M. P. P., Senator Derbyshire, Rural Dean Dobbs and R. H. Foster. The total proceeds of the social on 18th were $213.00, and it is generally conceded that had the night been fine double that amount would have been realized.
