WRESTLING.

Cleveland, O., June 11.-Central Arstory, the largest auditorium in the city, was packed to-night with a crowd that numbered between 8,000 and 10,000 people, to see the wrestling match between Tom Sharkey and Tom Jenkins, champion of America. terms of the match were that Jenkins was to throw Sharkey twice in an hour. The first round started at 9.40 the men struggling severely for 19 minutes, when Jenkins threw Sharkey with an upright double Nelson hold. Once or twice in this round Sharkey assumed the aggressive and Jenkins had to be careful or the tables would be turned. No holds were barred. After an interval of 5 minutes the second round began, the men struggling for 21 minutes, when Sharkey's shoulders were forced to the floor a second time with a similar hold to that which put him to the floor in the first round.

A pretty social event took place on Wednesday, June 5th, at 6.30 p. m., at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. J. Rankin, Baldoon, when their only daughter, Miss Mary J. Rankin, was married to Mr. Hugh Montgomery, of Dover. The ceremony took place on the lawn, which was tastefully decorated for the occasion. The bridal party stood under a flower-trimmed evergreen arch, while Rev. Chas. F. Clarke, assisted by Rev. J. M. Mc-Lintock, conducted the impressive service of the Methodist church. bride looked charming in a beautiful gown of cream silk trimmed with velvet and baby ribbon. She wore a wreath of orange blossoms and a veil and carried a large boquet of white roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Maria Trotter, of Dover, who looked well in a very pretty costume of white organdie over pink. She carried a bouquet of white and pink car-nations. Miss Grace Stokes, niece of the bridegroom, made a dainty little maid of honor. Mr. D. A. MacKay, of Woodstock, was best man. After the ceremony a reception was held on the lawn, after which the company sat down to a umptuous wed-ding dinner. The ha py couple will spend their honeymon at the Pan American exhibition, as 1 ft for that place amid showers of wheat, old boots and good wishes. A large company were present. WEDDING.

Mr. Gideon Purser's residence on the River Road, Harwich, last Wednesday evening, was the scene of a delightful event, it being th age of his youngest daughter, Alice Pansy, to Ira Wilborn Ferguson, of St. Thomas. The Rev. James Walker, Louisville, performed the ceremony at 6 p. m. on the spacious lawn. Men delssohn's wedding march was played by Miss Myrtle Patterson.

The bride was ably assisted by Miss Edith Neilson, of Chatham, and like services were rendered the groom by Walter C. Newton, of St. Thomas. Little Bessie Cumming, niece of the bride, made a very pretty maid of

After the ceremony about 45 guests sat down to a bountiful wedding breakfast spread on the lawn. The presents were numerous and costly, showing the high esteem in which the happy couple were held. Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson took the 11 p. m. train from Chatham for their home in St. Thomas, amid showers of rice and the good wishes of hosts of friends.

WEDDING BELLS.

Wednesday evening, June 5th, was the date of a very pretty wedding at the residence of Mr. James Walker, who is one of Dover's most prominent farmers. The event was the marriage of Dolly, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Walker, to Mr.

David Fryer, Jr.
Miss Etta McKenzie acted as bridesmaid, and Mr. David Brown assisted the groom. The bride was attired in silver grey with white silk and white applique trimmings and white flowers. bridesmaid's dress was grey trimmed with blue silk.

At 6 p. m. the bride entered the parlors on the arm of her father, and Rev. Mr. Clark tied the knot. After the ceremony the guests sat down to a sumptuous repast, which was fully enjoyed by all. The bride's cake was cut by Mrs. Wm. Walker, sister-in-law of the bride.

The presents were numerous, elab orate and all very useful. The guests numbered about fifty, all immediate relatives of the happy couple.

The bride was one of Dover's most highly respected young ladies and a general favorite, being popular for her genial manner and frank dispo-sition. She was very useful in church work, officiating as organiste for years in the Presbyterian Church, and lately as soprano in the Methodist choir at Baldoon. She was well known through the popularity and prominence of her father, who served in Dover Council and also as township clerk for a great many years.

Mr. Fryer is also a very popular young man of Dover, being the only son of David Fryer, Sr. He will take charge of his father's farm and has just completed a cosy home, which he and his bride will occupy shortly. and his bride will occupy shortly.

Among the guests from a distance might be mentioned Mr. and Mrs. Buist and Miss Shaw, of Chatham; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Walker, of Huron, Ohio; Mr. and Miss Drumond, Mr. and Mrs. Walker and Mr. and Mrs. Brown, of Wallaceburg.
