Someone has been fooling the local editor of the Western Chronicle about hay trade at Grand Pre.

Mr. J. O. Harris killed two spring turkeys last week which weighed respectively 12 and 13 lbs.

The ACADIAN will be clubbed with all of the best Canadian and American Periodicals.

We are glad to learn that J. L. Brown, Esq., who has been quite ill for a few weeks, is recovering, and hope to soon see him out.

We regret to learn that Mr. J. F. Rupert is ill at the Porter House, Kentville, and hope he may speedily recover.

Rev. R. D. Ross has gone on his annual visit to his home at Pictou. His pulpits will be occupied by the Rev. J. B. Hemmison and Rev. Prof. Keirstead.

POTATOES.—We will take good shipping potatoes on account or in exchange for goods.

CALDWELL & MURRAY.

The entertainment given by the members of Evangeline Division S. of T., Grand Pre, last Thursday evening was as usual a grand success, and some $12 was realized towards the organ fund.

Why pay six or seven dollars for making a suit when you can get a better fit and better made at Caldwell & Murray's for little more than the price of the cloth. Their overcoats are the best fitting in the market and wonderfully cheap.

Dec 12
BIG.—Dr. A. deW. Bares showed us a chicken on Wednesday which weighed, dressed, over seven pounds. This is only one of a flock of sixteen, which weighed together 90 pounds, and was the finest lot of birds we have ever seen; one pair weighed 15 lbs.

People are finding out every day that the merchant who gives long time must get long prices. Caldwell & Murray sell for cash or its equivalent and the people save money by buying from them, because there are no bad debts to be made up.

Dec 12
ACCIDENT.—Ralph Brown, a little son of J. L. Brown, Esq., while playing with a hay-cutter on Monday, nearly severed two of his fingers from his right hand. Dr. H. O. McLatchey was called in, and he is now doing well.

We have received the Acadian published at Wolford, Nova Scotia, a neat enterprising newspaper, full of local news. The publishers are Davison Bros. Parties having friends among the Blue Nooses should send for a copy. —Nepawa (Man.) Canadian.

Mr. E. C. Newcomb, of Canning, is our agent at that place, and orders for job work, and subscriptions to the ACADIAN may be left with him and will receive prompt attention. The ACADIAN is also on sale at his shop. Give him a call and leave your subscription.

The public schools were closed for the Christmas Holidays on Friday last. The pupils manifested their esteem in which their teachers were held by presenting them on that day with seasonable presents. Mr. J. L. Bishop, Prin., was the recipient of a volume of Longfellow's Poems, handsomely bound in morocco. Misses Parsons and McKeen each received a silver napkin ring.

We have received the prospectus of a paper called the Good Templar Herald, which is to be published monthly beginning January 1st 1885 as the organ of the Grand Lodge of Nova Scotia, I. O. G. T. The Grand Lodge is paying half the expense of it, thus giving it to subscribers for the small sum of 30 cents per annum. It should receive the support of all Good Templars, and temperance people generally. We wish it success.

CORRESPONDENCE.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions of our correspondents.

To the Editors of the Acadian.

Dear Sirs:—In your paper a few weeks ago you had an item about a small pig. Now can you or any of your readers tell me why that item is like the "Western Chronicle?" I offer a nice chromo for the first correct answer. The question is open to all. Address, B. A. C. O. N. Care ACADIAN office.

To the Editors of the Acadian.

Dear Sirs:—In your last issue we notice a correspondent, signing "P. P. O.," feels badly about an item in your paper in reference to a rustic scene in our window. Your reporter omitted to mention that under a tree on top of the miniature hill is to be seen standing a representation of the "Prominent public official" himself. He has not developed much by age and would hardly be a fit illustration for Darwin to prove the "evolution" theory by. His brother is looking over the fence.

Yours &c.,
"CERTAIN FIRM."
