THE ACADIAN

WOLFFVILLE, N. S., JAN. 29, 1892.

Local and Provincial.

The annual meeting of the rate-payers of the Wolfville Water District is to be held on Monday evening next, in Witter's Hall.

The writ for the election in this county has been issued. Nomination day will be on February 6th and election on February 13th.

Prof. D. E. Woodman, the champion water, is to have a match race in Munro's rink on Tuesday evening next. See notes.

A meeting of the Liberal-Conservative party is to be held at the Court House, Kentville, to-morrow (Saturday Jan 30th) at 1 P.M.

Rev. J. J. Ritchie, late of Annapolis died at the residence of his son, at Halifax, on Saturday last. He had been for some time in ill health.

Mrs. J. J. Ritchie cures Burns, &c.

R. T. Clinch, superintendent of the Western Union Telegraph company for the Maritime Provinces, died on Sunday from an attack of paralysis.

Rev. W. H. Young has been filling the Kentville Baptist pulpit for the past few weeks, in consequence of the illness of the pastor, Rev. Mr. Mainwaring.

The Wolfville hockey club expects to play the junior club of Windsor in the rink here next Thursday evening. The Kentville team will be in attendance, and a good time will be no doubt had.

The rink was open on Monday last for the first time this season. The ice is said to be in good condition, and the rink will no doubt be well patronized. Why can't we have a carnival this winter?

In another column we publish a letter from Rev. W. V. Higgins, who is now in the mission field in India. In a private letter Mr. Higgins informs us that he is meeting with good success in his chosen work.

Mr. D. R. Thomas has sold his property on the corner of College avenue and School street to the Messrs Knowles, of this town. We understand that it is the intention of Mr. Thomas to build on the adjoining lot, on School street.

Schooner Evolution, of Canning, now at Havana, has been sold to parties there for $4,000, the purchaser to pay the crew of $200 to furnish their free passage home. The Evolution is 144 tons register and was built at Canning in 1886.

Prof. Shaw, assisted by the Acadia Deaf-Quartet, will give a recital in Patterson's Hall, Horton Landing, on Thursday evening next, February 4th. This will be a grand opportunity for the people of that vicinity to enjoy a pleasant evening's entertainment.

You want K. D. C. - you want to be cured of dyspepsia. Then take K. D. C. and be cured of dyspepsia.

The latest journalistic venture in the G.M. from New Glasgow. It begins with a promise of improvements if generally patronized. In politics it will be independent with the privilege of taking sides with either party when circumstances require. It has our best wishes.

On Wednesday morning Mr. D. E. Woodman brought into our office a full-blown mayflower, which was picked in the open air on Tuesday by Mrs. Simon Galt, of Highbury. Will someone kindly inform us whether this should be considered early or late for them.

At last we have plenty of snow and good sleighing, which will be well taken advantage of. Many were afraid that we were to have no snow this winter and that in consequence a large part of the regular winter teaming would have to go undone. There will now probably be brisk, and a large amount of teaming be done. Our streets have presented a lively appearance during the past few days.

Recently steps were being taken to reconstitute "Avakalcher" Division of S. of T. at Hantsport, with good prospects of success, and it was fully expected that the work would be accomplished in a week or two. After Rev. Mr. Dunnet's lecture in the interest of the Good Templars, it was decided to organize a Lodge; those who were interested in reconstituting the Division did not care to oppose the movement, as it was along the same line, and therefore gave their sympathy and support. We understand that about eighty persons signified their willingness to join the new Lodge, which will therefore start under the most favorable conditions. -Journal.

Local and Provincial.

Mr. E. W. Dimock, a wealthy shipowner and prominent business man of Windsor, died on Sunday last.

On our fourth page will be found an interesting and instructive article on plum-culture. It is well worthy of a careful perusal, as the ideas contained may be valuable.

Sunday was the coldest day of this season, which had hitherto been remarkable mild. On that day the mercury got down below zero and brought very forcibly to the minds of all that winter was not left out this season after all.

The schooner Reward, from Kingsport, for Demerara with potatoes, is ashore on the beach near Fox Point, Parraboro. She is not much damaged, but it is feared if a westerly gale springs up she will become a total wreck. The Reward is owned by R. W. Kinnaman, of Canning.

Rev. Dr. Burns, of Halifax, has notified his congregation of Fort Massey that he intends resigning the pastorate of the church. The resignation will be sent in to the presbytery of Halifax, which meets on Tuesday next. Dr. Burns is only slightly recovered from the paralytic stroke which he had on New Year's Day.

K. D. C. is guaranteed to cure any case of Indigestion or Dyspepsia or money refunded.

The Port Hawkesbury Town Council has passed a resolution offering liberal inducement to any company starting a factory or any kind of business in that town which would give employment to a portion of its citizens. Circulars in accordance with this resolution will be distributed throughout the leading manufacturing cities of Canada.

In the February New England Magazine Walter Blackburn Harte writes a thoughtful estimate of Walt Whitman's genius in which he avoids the extremes of adulation and depreciation, into which most critics of Whitman have fallen. He also contributes a short story, "John Parmenter's Protege," which contains a good deal of human nature and humanity.

Moore C. McDormond, agent of the Canadian and American Express Co., at Annapolis, met with an unfortunate accident. While removing the heavy iron express box from the Yarmouth train, the corner of the box caught the thumb of the right hand and jammed it against the rod that the door of the baggage-car runs on. Medical assistance was immediately procured and it was found necessary, on account of the mangled condition of the thumb, to amputate it.

Notice.

In order to keep my custom hands at work through the dull season I am selling my entire stock of Cloths at cost price either by the yard or made up into suits. Persons wishing to get a Suit, Overcoat or Pants would do well to call and examine my goods. Remember this offer is for one month only from date and for cash only. THOS. A. MUNRO, Wolfville, N. S.

Also, I am offering my store for sale as I am anticipating some change in the spring. It is one of the most centrally located in town, and would be suitable for almost any kind of business. T. A. M.

The Court of Revision and Appeal.

On Tuesday last the court of revision and appeal met in the Court House, Kentville. Present, Municipal Clerk L. De V. Chipman with General Assessors Reid, Taylor and Steele. Appeals from the assessments were made from Wards 2, 3, 6 and 8. Isaac N. Tupper, Ward 3, had his assessment reduced $300; Adolbert Bishop, New Minas, whose assessment had been raised $700 over previous year, had $700 taken off his real, and $100 off his personal property; Thomas J. Jacques, Ward 2, who was assessed $4,000, was reduced to $3,700; Joseph C. Haley, reduced from $5,500 to $4,400; Thomas O'Brien had his assessment reduced $400 on real and $25 on personal property; Emma Graham, wife of Capt. Joseph Graham, Wolfville, who was rated for $74, had her rate reduced to $400. John A. Johnson, Grand Pre, appeared as an executor of the estate of the late Rev. George Johnson on three points: (1) That the assessment should be related to Mrs. George Johnson, widow of said Rev. George Johnson, instead of to the estate, as property was left to her by will; (2) That certain property, which was also assessed to the estate, never belonged to said estate, and should therefore not be thus rated; (3) That the said assessment was an excessive assessment. After hearing the case, and full explanation being given by Mr. Johnson, the appeal was granted on all three points. The original assessment of $2,000 was reduced to $1,500. Mrs. George Johnson being assessed for $1,100 and John A. Johnson for the remaining $400.

PRAT & COLLINS, Wolfville, January 28th, 1892.

The New England Magazine.

The initial article in the New England Magazine for February is a beautifully illustrated one, dealing with the life and work of Corot the great French painter.

It is written by his godson, Camille Thun-ranger, whose family was intimate with the artist and his family for a number of years. The article contains data and anecdotes of Corot never before made public. M. Lamont Brown furnishes a fine engraving of "Corot at Work" for the frontispiece and other engravings in the body of the article. "Some Letters of Wendell Phillips to Lydia Maria Child" will recall many memories of the great orator. All interested in the material development of New England will turn to George A. Rick's article on "The Granite Industry in New England," which is illustrated by Louis A. Howland and J. H. Hatfield. Walter Blackburn Harte contributes a critical estimate of Walt Whitman's work and genius, and a short story of journalistic life called "John Parmenter's Protege." It has a very unexpected denouement, and those who have found amusement in Mr. Harte's "In a Corner at Dredgery" will read this story with some curiosity. Sam. T. Clowry writes a very clever article on "The parties and Cotens of Dakota." It is finely illustrated, and is sprinkled throughout with original verse descriptive of the parties. Winfield S. Nevin's valuable series, "Stories of Salem Witchcraft," is continued, and the fine illustrations by Jo. H. Hatfield add greatly to its attractiveness. Caroline Hazard contributes a story, "A Tale of Narragansett" which is well illustrated by H. Martin Seal, and A. E. Brown writes another wish story in which there is no witchcraft. G. M. Lamson writes on the "Churches of Worcester." Albert D. Smith gives a good idea of the war as viewed by the world who stayed at home in "A Country Boy's Recollections of the War." The omnibus department of light, humorous, and social verse is very entertaining in this number.

La Grippe. This terrible disease seems to be again spreading throughout the province and many are falling victims to its ravages. In different parts of this county whole families are lying sick with it. Some have died and many that recover will be left in a weak and shattered condition. While even the best physicians do not seem to understand the disease or to be able to cure it, it is interesting to know that Seavey's Fast India Lintiment, that remarkable Eastern remedy, has proved an almost certain cure. About a year ago while this disease was raging in Port Hood, C. B. this wonderful remedy found its way into several of the afflicted homes. The results are gratefully told as follows:

Mrs. Angus Melzac says: "I suffered over a month from La Grippe and tried everything recommended without effect. One bottle of East India Lintiment removed every trace of it."

Mrs. B. Sutherland says: "One bottle of your East India Lintiment cured my children of 'La Grippe.' I will always keep a bottle of it in the house. It is worth a hundred times its price."

Mrs. B. McNis says: "A trial bottle of Seavey's Fast India Lintiment cured me of 'La Grippe' in a few hours."

SHILO'S CURE will immediately relieve Croup, Whooping Cough, and Bronchitis. Sold by Geo. V. Rand, druggist.

We have made a contract with the brightest and best of the great illustrated monthly magazines,

THE "COSMOPOLITAN," whereby we can furnish it to you at a very low price, so low indeed that there is scarcely a family in this section who can afford to miss the opportunity of bringing sunshine to their home.

The COSMOPOLITAN gives in a year 1536 pages of reading by the world's most famous authors, illustrated by over 1300 engravings from the pens of the ablest artists. The popularity of the magazine is such that it has grown from 16,000 to over 100,000 copies within three years. What better tale of merit could there be?

The price of the COSMOPOLITAN alone is $3.00 a year, but our offer to you is better than that. We will furnish:

The Cosmopolitan, $3.00.

The Acadian, 1.00.

Total, $4.00.

both for only $3.00. If you are not acquainted with the COSMOPOLITAN, mention this paper and send for a free sample copy to Cosmopolitan Publishing Co, Madison Square, Broadway and Fifth avenue, New York city. We will take your orders at the "ACADIAN" OFFICE.
