Intercollegiate Foot Ball Schedule.

St. John's Globe of Oct. 11th says:—The dates for the intercollegiate series of football were decided upon Thursday evening, when representatives from Acadia, U. N. B. and Mount Allison held a meeting in the Royal Hotel. The Wolfville team was represented by Ray Haley, of this city, who is managing the Acadia team this season. Captain 'Hal' Murray represented the U. N. B. team, and Capt. Frank Dickinson was the Mount Allison delegate.

During the conference between the three representatives the dates for the three games were decided. The opening game was settled for the 25th inst. between Mount Allison and Acadia on the latter's grounds. The second game of the series will be on November 1st at Sackville between Mount Allison and U. N. B. On Nov. 8th U. N. B. will meet Wolfville fifteen at Fredericton. According to the schedule each team will have one game on home grounds.

Opera House.

A comedy of many complications, sparkling with wholesome and undisputed merriment, by a capable company, handsomely gowned and artistically staged is 'The Arrival of Kitty,' which will be seen on Monday, Oct. 21st, at the Opera House. The fun is due to the fondness of 'Col. Bell' for 'Kitty Benders,' a vaudeville artist, who for sufficient reasons he dares not introduce in his household.
