Those who missed coming to the pictures on Tuesday night missed a good one, a picture in which the good old Union Jack waved more freely than any other that we ever saw. "The Face at your Window" was a thrilling story, the real purpose of which seemed to be to show up the sinister effect of Red Bolshevism as it subtly undermines the relation between capital and labor throughout our land. The play ran the gamut from small clandestine Soviet meetings, to the real outbreak when flame and sword ran riot only frustrated by the efforts of the Ku Klux Klan. A pretty love story ran through the piece. The picture was a sound warning against those who wave the red flag throughout the land. A Gayety Comedy, "Zero Love," completed the bill. On Saturday evening the big Super Special "Conflict" was shown. This was an accurate dramatization of Clarence Buddington Kelland's serial of the same name and dealt with big men and big deeds among the big redwoods. The picture was full of thrills from start to finish and was all the more enjoyed by those who read the book. Very clever work was done throughout the play by Priscilla Dean with able support from Herbert Rawlinson. A universal comedy furnished the evening's entertainment. Watch the advertising for special Christmas programs.

F. W. Oldwell, M. P., addressed a large audience in the Farmers' auditorium on Saturday evening on pertinent questions of the day.

The display of Christmas novelties at the several town stores is very good, although most of the merchants were just a bit cynical this season of being in too strongly for this brand of wares. Trade has been average all the week with the usual amount of cash Christmas buyers left for the last moment.

The Basket Ball season opened most auspiciously on Friday evening, the coolers (not the bleachers) being well filled with a bunch of enthusiastic rooters, who cheered wildly as each thrilling play was made. The first game was played between two girl teams "Ducklings" vs "Goings" resulting in a score of 17 to 4. They line up as follows: Forwards—Goodspeed—A. Smith, MacKenzie—DeLong; Centre—Harold (Capt.)—Lee (Capt.); Defence—L. Smith—F. Smith, Niles—Downey. These girls will play a good game before spring. Of course girl like, and unable to sacrifice the joy of petite feet, we think they bought their shoes a little snug and slowed up a bit for tender feet as the game proceeded.

The second game was between the boys' new high school team and a picked team from town as follows: Lilliputians—Brothermagians Niles Forwards—Burt (Capt.) Peppers—Reid Gallagher—Centre—Brown Clark—Defence—Straham White (Capt.) Baird.

Both sides played well and a winter's experience should go far to making pretty good players of them. The town team won 33 to 10. R. Bishop refereed both games.

Mr. Stork arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Gilliland on Saturday leaving a fine boy.

HOME-BREWED POETRY

Christmas Present.

Let every one remember
On Twenty-Fifth December.

Health centre opened years ago,
Now Lift, Health, Love, Joy, Peace
doth flow.

If have no health, then have no nation,
Have health, it walk in God's salvation.

If "least commandments" teach and keep,
All evil from the earth soon sweep.

T. A. Jones.

HEAVEN

There is a "place" called heaven
For mortals here below.

My friend if you would go there
Wash "whiter than the snow."

The way to holy heaven
Is called the "Holy Way."

And every one who walks there,
Will for their paper pay.

Repent, believe, receive,
Baptize with holy fire.

It's then you'll be a power,
Lift sinners out the mire. T. A. J.

He cannot afford to be without The Family Herald at any price. The cost of a year's subscription is only two dollars.

MOTHER!

Your Child's Bowels Need
"California Fig Syrup"

Hurry mother! Even a sick child loves the "fruity" taste of "California Fig Syrup" and it never fails to open the bowels. A teaspoonful today may prevent a sick child tomorrow. If constipated, bilious, feverish, fretful, has cold, colic, or if stomach is sour, tongue coated, breath bad, remember a good cleansing of the little bowels is often all that is necessary.

Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "CALIFORNIA" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.
