A BAD APPOINTMENT.

London, May 27.-The Times' Constantinople correspondent says that much apprehension has been caused among the Young Turks and Armenfans by the news that the new Vali of Adana, who is described as a somewhat fanatical Kurd, has entrusted the important task of distribution of the Government Relief Fund to Bagdadi, a Turkish land owner who was the first to lead a band of armed men into the bazar of Adana and begin the slaughter of Armenians.

There is reason to believe the correspondent adds that the local not ables implicated in the massacre are endeavoring to secure official support at Constantinople to protect them from well-merited chastisement that many of the military leaders are anxious to inflict upon them. The attitude of the best elements in thee army and the chamber, however, encourages the hope that the efforts will not be accepted. stantinople correspondent says that

A Noiseless Typewriter

A Noiseless lypewriter

Has not as yet been produced anywhere, but Smith Premier No. 10 makes less noise than any other typewriter. Noise on a typewriter can be classified into three parts, namely: 1, noise made by the space bar; 2, noise made by the type bars coming in contact with the platen roll; 3, noise made by the shift key. On Smith Premier No. 10 the space bar makes practically no noise; 2, the type bars striking the platen make less noise than on any other machine; 3, we have no shift key, therefore, we have no noise. Model No. 10 is the only perfectly visible writing typewriter on the market. A. Brickmann, 15 Main street east, 'phone 3386:

Bandmaster Hurt-That Chicken Fight in Brantford.

(Special Despatch to the Times.)

Gspecial Despatch to the Times.)

Brantford, May 27.—The police arrested last night Joe Harp and Gordon Attridge, two young Brantford incorrigibles, who escaped from the Victoria Industrial School some three weeks ago, and who, like bad pennies, turned up at home yesterday. They were not in town an hour before they were given a spectacular chase along the railway track by Constables Kerr and Donnelly, and captured. Both will be taken back to Mimico to-day to complete their five-year terms.

SERVICES RECOUNTED

SERVICES RECOGNIZED. SERVICES RECOGNIZED.

The clever capture of Joe Smith, the burglar, made here a little over a week ago by P. C. Bosthwick, is to be recognized by the Police Commissioners, who have decided to add two years to the constable's standing with the department, which means a considerable increase in pay. Smith was sentenced to seven years in Kingston, and was caught red-handed by Borthwick, who made a plucky fight in order to effect his capture.

AN ACCIDENT.

An unfortunate accident happened last night, when Bandmaster Bartram, of the Telephone City Union Band, was returning from Mohawk Park. He was unable to get a car, and decided to walk home. Coming down Mohawk hill the step on the side of the open car struck him forcibly, inflicting a deep gash in his hip and fracturing his leg. He was in company with his wife at the time. The accident will incapacitate him from work for some time.

Window Came Down With a Crash and Gave the Alarm.

(Special Despatch to the Times.) Guelph. Ont., May 27.-At three 'clock this morning the crash of breaking glass aroused the inmates of the Albion Hotel, and the proprietor, Mr. May, and the house porter saw a stranger climb out of the window leading to the bar room. The police were phoned for and Constable Greenway arrived a few minutes later. The nocturnal visitor had just been seen to go around the corner of the hotel, and by making a sprint the constable was able to make a capture. He gave his name as Peter Fairburn, of Hamilturn, and was remanded for a week on a burglary charge. The cash register had been gone through and only 10 cents was left, while change amounting to a little over a dollar was found in the pockets of Fairburn. An entrance had been gained by piling beer boxes to the window and a pane had been broken to permit of a fastening being undone. Ane window had been proped up and it was when the prop slipped and the window came down that the alarm was given. breaking glass aroused the inmates of the Albion Hotel, and the proprietor,

What Banks Fear the Most. What Banks Fear the Most.

What banks fear is not so much a burglar gaining access to their premises by forcing doors, but by tunneling and other equally cunning and daring methods. A few years ago a cashier in one of the national banks of the United States in New Mexico was busy at work one evening in the office when his quick ear detected some curious sounds. They seemed to proceed from a subterranean region; and he was not long in concluding that robbers must be tunneling from an adjoining building to the vault in the bank.

Guards were immediately posted in bank.

Guards were immediately posted in and around the building. Soon they observed the masonry of the bank to be giving way. Meantime the robbers appeared to be hard at work, and quite unaware that they were being watched. At one in the morning a Mexican volunteered to deseend into the bank cellar so as to discover the actual situation. At one in the morning a Mexican volunteered to descend into the bank cellar so as to discover the actual situation. Scarcely had he gone a few paces down the stairs than he met someone coming up. The Mexican fired without saying a word, and shot the man dead. It was observed that he was one of the masons who had built the bank, and therefore was acquainted with its vulnerable points. The report of firearms alarmed his accomplices, for they fled, and escaped. The tunnel gave evidence of long and patient work on the part of the would-be thieves. It was sixty feet in length, constructed on scientific principles, contained provisions, water and a full outfit of mining tools, and must have been three months in operation. The robbery appeared to be planned for the time of the month when the bank received large remittances of currency and coin.
