

R. G ASH & CO., St. John's, Sole Agents in Newfoundland, will be pleased to quote prices.

AT THE BAR OF ANOTHER WORLD

THE MARCH ASSIZE.

retire. After communing to to the fearful interrogatory:-

the dock. He appeared stunned, cruel and deliberate murder." ewildered, as a man but half-awaksupposed to look. He had comprehended, though he scarcely heard, the verdict; for one instant, the voice his brain, and he could recognize the little pattering feet of his children, as ed the "still, small" tones, and transobbing and clinging to their shriek- quilized the startled jurors. ing mother's dress, she and they were hurried cut of court. The judge with his cold, calm voice of clerk, after a painful pause, repeated the solemn formula. By a strong guilty of a heinous offence by a jury would throw himself on his bed and effort the doomed man mastered his of your countrymen after a patient agitation; his pale countenance lighted up with indignant fire, and firm and the clerk of arraigns asked the you, pride-blinded ministers, of death. tence of death should not be passed ion-modes and instruments, by the aid of which you fondly imagine to invest yourselves with attributes Poor Harvey! I durst not look at | which belong only to Omniscience: im. As the sonorous words fell on and now I warn you and it is a voice bility" sanctioned, could not be wrong much less murderous or cruel, silenctrial. With that finding I need soar satisfied of your guilt as if I had seen ou commit the act with my own bodly eyes. The circumstance of your being a person who, from habits and ducation, should have been above nmitting so base a crime, only aggravates your guilt However, no matter who or what you have been, ou must explate your offence on the caffold. The law has very properly or the safety of society, decreed the nishment of death for such crimes: ur only and plain duty is to execute

The prisoner did not reply: he was of the dock, his bowed face covered with his outspread hands; and the udge passed sentence of death in the ccustomed form. The court arose, and a turnkey placed his hand upon he prisoner's arm, to lead him away. Suddenly he uncovered his face, drew himself up to his full height-he was a remarkably tall man-and glared fiercely round upon the audience, like wild animal at bay. "My lord," he ried, or rather shouted, in an excited oice. 'The judge motioned impaiently to the jailer, and strong hands mpelled the prisoner from the front f the dock. Bursting from them, he again sprang forward, and his arms outstretched, whilst his glittering eye seemed to hold the judge snell-bound exclaimed. "My lord, before another which you have impiously cast away The court, in some confusion, hastily malice. departed. It was thought at the time that the judge's evidently failing stood accused was that of robbing a the prisoner. It only excited a few shillings, in the neighborhood of II position demands." days' wonder, and was forgotten.

need hardly say that my feelings were that if the unfortunate man really was guilty, he was at least not de serving of capital punishment, I exerted myself to procure a reprieve. In the first place I waited privately HE jury were not disposed to and self-possessed, he thus replied on the judge; but he would not listen to no proposal for a respite. Along gether for a few minutes, one Much could I say in the name, of the Society of Friends—I petitioned lord—a dreadful crime—which, as I depends upon the fact that it is un with a number of individuals-chieffy of them stood up and delivered the not of mercy but of justice, why the the crown for a commutation of the verdict; it was Guilty! The judge sentence about to be passed on me sentence. But being unaccompanied assumed the crowning badge of the should not be pronounced; but no with a recommendation from the judicial potenttae-the black cap; thing, alas! that will avail me with judge, the prayer of our petition was of course disregarded: the law, it was said, must take its course. How much risoner at the bar, in the usual form, You fashion to yourselves out of cruelty has been exercised under the had anything to urge why sen your own vain conceits do you fash- shelter of that remorseless expres-

I woud willingly pass over the succeeding events. Unable to save his life. I endeavoured to soothe the few remaining hours of the doomed conhis ear, he was grasping nervously from the tomb, in whose shadow, I vict, and frequently visited him in with shaking hands at the front of that you are about to commit a most of him, the deeper grew my sympathy in his case, which was that of ne He paused, and the jury looked in vulgar felon. "I have been a most ened from a hideous dream might be to each other's eyes for the courage unfortunate man," he said to me one they could not find in their own day. I feel as if deserted by God hearts. The voice of conscience and man; yet I know, or at least spoke, but was only for a few mo- would persuade myself, that Heaven ments audible. The suggestions that will one day vindicate my innocence which but a few years before sang to what grave parliaments, learned of this foul charge. To think of behim by brook side, was ringing to judges, and all classes of "respectaing hanged like a dog for a crime at which my soul revolts! Great is the crime of those imbecile jurors and that false and hard-hearted judgewho thus, by an irreversible decree "Prisoner at the bar," said the consign a fellow-mortal to a death of violence and disgrace. Oh, God, help destiny, "I cannot listen to such ob me-help me to sustain that bitter, servations; you have been found bitter hour!" And then the poor man

But the parting with his wife and children. What pen can describe that terrible interview! They knelt in prayer, their wo-be-gone countenances suffused in tears, and with hands clasped convulsively together. The scene was too harrowing and sacred for the eye of a stranger. rushed from the cell, and buried myself in my lodgings, whence I did not remove till all was over. Next day James Harvey, a victim of circumstantial evidence, and of a barbarous criminal code, perished on the scaf-

Three weeks afterwards, the court arrived at a popular city in the west of England. It had in the interval visited another assize town, and there Judge A had left three for execution. At the trial of these men, how. ever, I had not attended. So shocked had been my feelings with the mournful event which had taken place atthat I had gone into Wales for the sake of change of scene. After roaming about for a fortnight amidst the wild solitudes of Carnarvonshire, 1 took the stage for the city which I knew the court was to visit, and ar rived on the day previous to the opening of the assizes. 'Well, are we to have a heavy calendar?" I enquired next morning of a brother barrister on entering the "Rather light for a March assize" replied the impatient counsel as he bustled forward. "There's Cartwright's case—highway robbery—iu which I am for the prosecution. He'll wing for it, and perhaps four or five

"A good hanging judge is Asaid the under-sheriff, who at that few executions. "No chance of the prophecy yonder coming to pass ling counsel. "He never looked bet ly off. And this day's work never seen the man before, and was menth has passed away, you will ap- not aware that this was the same nswer for the life, the innocent life, told me he had discharged for theft: as a thing of naught and scorn!" He ate man had not known how much he tourist is advised to throw lumps

The crime of which the villain now fracombe. He pleaded not guilty form A- sentenced him to be hangof a very distressing kind. Conscious ed. An expression of fiendish mali- he writes. "Its hide is impenetrab'e court. It was granted. Leaning for-There is something on my mind, my am to die for the eight shillings I took from the farmer, I miy as well c niess. You may remember Harvey,

If You Can Afford to use the BEST buy Robin Hood Flour

"The Flour that is different." If you do you will find that the cost of ROBIN HOOD is smallest after all. The bigger loaf is one differ-

Easier assimilations of the bread is another difference. The weeter flavor is a third There are other points of difference. Any one of them worth the extra cost.

Saskatchewan Flour Mill's Co., Ltd. Moose Jaw - - Sask.

ny lord, whom you hanged the other day at-'What of him, fellow?' replied the judge, his features suddenly flushing

To be continued.

Etiquette in the Jungle Sir Frederick Treves on How to Mee a Liou.

lescribed humorously by Sir Freder ick Treves, the famous surgeon, in his fifth book of general interest, which is entitled "Uganda for a Holiday" and was published recently, price s., by Messrs Smith, Elder, and Co

Sir Frederick explains in his pre ace that he visited this part of Africa with the outlook of an "unspecialized traveller"-of the man who merely seeks "somewhere to go to." "The tourist coming to British East Africa is sure to inquire as to the line of conduct that should be observed when a lion is encountered by the way," writes Sir Frederick. "In answer to such inquiry I was fold that the etiquette suitable for the occasion was the following: If the lien when met with is walking in the on posite direction to the tourist, the animal should be allowed to continue Cartwright's trial came on. I had his walk without comment. If, howpear at the bar of another world, to person whom Harvey had incidently should 'Shish' the animal away, as he would an obtruse goose on a village which God bestowed upon me, but the truth being, that till the last mo- green. Should the lion be unmoved ment of his existence, that unfortun by this expression of annoyance the ceased, and was at once borne off had been a sacrifice to this wretch's earth at the obtuse creature. If, after this, the lion still fails to realise that he is de trop, the tourist is re commended to walk away from the health had suggested the prophecy to farmer of the paltry sum of eight spot with such dignity as the strained

Sir Frederick Treves has several The position of a barrister in such but put in no defence. A verdict was other things to say about the animals circumstances is always painful. I recorded against him, and in due of the world. "The rhinoceros is the embodiment of blind conservatism, is weaker. It has, however, two marked qualities-combativeness and sense of smell. It is aroused to its maximum energy by the presence of ward, and raising his heavy, scowling anything that is new. This object eyes to the judge, he thus began :- need not be a thing that is aggressive or inconvenient. Its offensiveness

> "When a rhinocerous smells a man he will charge him with maniacal violence, although the man may be merely sitting on a stool reading Milton. The massive beast will dash at him like a torpedo or a runaway la comotive, simply because the smell o him is novel. Actuated by this insane hate of whatever savours of an innovation the rhinoceros has charged an iron water tank on the outskirts of a camp and has crumpled up as a blacksmith would an empty meat tin.

"A conservative rhinoceros with senile dislike of anything new once charged a train on the Uganda Railway, but with no more serius results than the tearing away of the food board of a carriage. As regards the rhinoceros in this case, it appeared surprised that a thing composed, as t had imagined, of flesh and blood could be so hard. It went off with an additional grievance and an i reased swelling of the head"

Shocking Crime

IN SAN FRANCISCO.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 14.-Beatbeyond semblance to a human orm, the body of an aged woman was found to-day in a vacant lot next to the Savoy Theatre, in the centre of the business district in this city, John Knapp, a former convict, is in fail charged with the murder. The murdered woman was identified as Mrs. Julia Cary, aged 85 years. Identification was made by Mrs. Love matron of the city prison, who said Mrs. Cary had been in prison a number of times for petty offences. Detectives found Knapp standing in front of a stable where he is employed, not far from the place where the body lay. He was placed under arrest and in his room in the stable was found a wooden weight smeared with blood, and knotted gray hair. Some of Knapp's discarded garments were covered with blood, and the collar and waist of the coat he wore when arrested were spotted with bloody finger prints. A trail was discovered over which the woman had been drag having served 13 years in the Folsome Penitentiary for the murder of James Quinn, of Humboldt, Iowa, in a gambling quarrel. London, Nov. 12.-The Times ediorially, again dwells on the probability of the King and Queen visiting the Overseas Dominions and says that Empire enters a new and more auspicious era; and that he has respon

EVENING TELEGRAM FASHION PLATES.

The Home Dressmaker should keep a Catalogue Scrap Book of our Pattern Cuts. These will be found very useful to refer to from time

A Practical Apron.

8720.

the one here shown, not only protects the entire dress, but is very becoming as well. It may be made with very little difficulty, and the case with which it may be slipped on housewife. The bib is cut circular and slips on easily over the head requiring no pins or buttons to hold it in place. A generous size pocket is a useful addition that will oe garment as this could be success. fully made from linen, gingham, madras and percale. The medium size will require 3% yards of 36 inch material for the making. Sizes for small, medium and large. A pattern of this illustraton will be mailed to any address upon receipt of 10c. in silver or stamps.

8804. Practical Model showing New and Attractive Ideas

This comfortable model has sev eral excellent features, but its closing that extends to the lower edge of the skirt, and is a great saving of trouble in laundering. The waist may be finished with a standing collar, or with the sailor collar. Deep shoulder plaits give breadth and lend fulness to the design. The skirt may be plaited or gathered. The design is adapted for woolen materials, and also for ginghams, chambreys, percale or repp. The pattern is cut in 5 sizes: 6, 8, 10, 12, 14 years. It requires 4 5-8 years of 24 inch material for the 8 year size. A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10c. in silver or stemps.

Size

Address

ease send the	ароле-шенто	neu patter	n as per directi	ons given
			No
			A STATE OF THE STA in full:—

pon, carefully filled out. The pattern cannot reach you in less than 15 days. Price 10 cents each, in cash, postal note, or stamps. Address:

ged from the stable to the lot where the body was found. Knapp is 57 years old and has a criminal record.

Harbor and Dock Guide and Daily Tide Tables for 1911.

with the accession of King George the GARRETT BYRNE, Bookseller & Stationer sibilities to the Empire which can be fully discharged only by personal contact. It is therefore right and seemly that His Majesty should contemplate holding courts in the Duz-

IN 1898 ---

The London Lancet, after a careful examination of

Scott's Emulsion

reported that "the preparation fulfills ALL the requirements and presents ALL the conditions of a very satisfactory emulsion. In appearance and consistency it is not unlike cream and under the microscope the fat globules are seen to be of perfectly regular size and uniformly distributed. So well has the oil been emulsified that even when shaken with water the fat is slow to separate. The taste is decidely unobjectionable and the Emulsion should wrome an excellent food as well as a tonic."

We believe no other preparation of Cod Liver Oil has sived such weighty commendation and if the same high authorities were to examine it now they would find it even finer, way; in fact, SCOTT'S EMULSION has so long been the one satisfactory and perfect Emulsion that it is accepted as the standard by medical practitioners all over the world, by the ublic and by hundreds of imitators, for it is the one and only

The initations are in name only for no other preparat of Cod Liver Oil is so pure, so perfect and so beneficial.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

has become the world's Standard Body-Builder because of the perfect purity of its ingredients, its absolute freedom from ALCOHOL or any other harmful substance and because the results from it are uniform and far greater than from any

ALL DRUGGISTS