Wedding Bells.

EWING-RADFORD.

Yesterday afternoon, Miss Isabelle Foote Radford, daughter of Mr. W. C. Radford, who left this city for Philadelphia some time ago, was married to Mr. James R. Ewing, son of Mr. W. H. Ewing, taxidermist. The ceremony took place at the George Street Methodist Parsonage. The bride was attired in blue, serge with hat to match. Her bridesmaid was Miss Clara Ewing. The groom was supported by Mr. W. G. Atwell. The father gave Mr. Giles Foote. The honeymoon will be spent at Kelligrews.

Says Purse Was Stolen

Mrs. P. Butler, Water Street, lost a half sovereign from her purse last Monday night. She had two gold pieces (half sovereigns) in her purse when she left her house to go to a dressmaking place up town. After fitting on a coat she noticed that her purse had been removed from the spot where she had laid it. On opening it she found only one gold piece. She has put the case in the hands of the police. She is positive that the two gold pieces were in the purse when she left home, and the purse was not laid down till she reached the tailor's place.

Amanda Howell Here.

Miss Amanda Howell arrived here this morning by the express from Bonine Bay via Bay of Islands. She is very weak and was obliged to lie in bed all the way over. She was, however, well looked after and seemed to be quite bright when the train arrived here. The train hands said that she was much improved. She was able to get up and dress herself. The ambulance was on hand and took her to the Hospital.

Out in the Storm.

The scho. Elsa which left here two weeks ago to go to Little Bay Islands, did not reach her destination but returned to this port this morning. She was out in the storm, had her canvas carried away and drifted to sea. She had a load of provisions from Monroe's to land at Little Bay Islands, and the intention of Capt. Dawe to land fish there for Oporto for Monroe.

Hospital Patients.

Miss Finlay, of St. Shotts, who arrived in town recently, and is very ill, was taken to the Hospital this morning by Mr. Eli Whiteway. Miss Howell, who had such a terrible experience in the woods near Bonine Bay, was also taken there at 1 p.m. in the ambulance. Martin Crane, of La-Manche, was the third patient taken there by Mr. Whiteway to-day. He had been staying with friends at New Gower Street waiting for a vacant cot.

Another Score.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Mr. Editor.—I must congratulate you on the power of your paper as an advertising medium. A few days since you advertised for one John Gibbs and I notice he is being returned by the express to-day. Score another for the Telegram. PUBLIC.

October 11th, 1911.

Coastal Boats.

REID FIELD. CO.

The Argyle arrived at Burin at 3.20 p.m. yesterday going east. The Solway is north of Twillingate at 4.35 p.m. yesterday from the south.

Train Notes.

The Carbonar train reached town sharp at noon to-day, bringing Rev. J. V. Donnelly, J. Goodison and 40 others. The west bound express reached Port aux Basques at 10.15 last night. The incoming express arrived here from Port aux Basques at 12.30 p.m. to-day bringing 60 passengers, including Magistrate McDonald, Mrs. Collier, John J. Gibbs, Miss Holwell, E. J. Horwood, R. A. Winter, Mrs. H. Winter, A. Fowles and J. Stick.

A Difficult Job.

The work of putting the new propeller blades on the s.s. Themis while out docking her was a difficult job. The s.s. Themis will now be hauled in at the Reid pier near the dock and have a new propeller. There are three blades damaged on her propeller. It is expected that the job will be finished by Saturday.

Lost a Seaman.

The three-masted schooner Grand Falls, Capt. Taylor, which left here for Oporto in August, lost a man named Lawson, who fell into the sea from aloft. On the return voyage the foretopmast was carried away.

CAPE REPORT.

Special to Evening Telegram. CAPE RACE, To-Day. Wind north, light, weather fine. The s.s. Cacoma passed in yesterday p.m. and a large fleet of schooners passed west this morning. Bar, 29.58, ther. 40.

Columbus Day.

To-day being the anniversary of the landing of Christopher Columbus on the soil of the New World, is known as Columbus Day, and was observed fittingly by the Terra Nova Branch of the Order here. They all went to confession last night at the R. C. Cathedral and attended Mass this morning, all receiving Holy Communion. It was a very edifying sight.

PRISONER BY TRAIN.—Constable Bishop, of Brigus, arrived here by the shore train at noon bringing an old man named Richards for the Penitentiary.

P. O. IMPROVEMENTS.—A new lavatory is being put in at the General Post Office to-day, in the room lately occupied by Mr. J. J. McCarthy, Supt. of Money Order Department.

The Portia will sail west to-morrow. The Prospero is still north of Seal Cove.

PROVOKES OPPOSITION.

Melbourne, October 4.—A great fight is expected in Parliament over the decision of the Hon. Mr. Fisher, Premier, to construct the Government railroad from Port Augusta to Kalbarrie to the standard gauge. The states through which the line will pass, and whose railroads are of broad gauge, are strenuously objecting, and the plan of the Premier will be vigorously opposed.
