Too Busy to be Healthy.

BY RUTH CAMERON.

A hard working young business man was driven to his doctor by a bad case of indigestion. Instead of medicine the doctor prescribed a set of exercises to be taken five or six times a day. The business man took them six times the first day, three times the second, remembered them once or twice the next two days and then completely forgot them for the next ten. At the end of that time he came back to the doctor's office with a more violent attack of his trouble.

"Been taking your exercises?" asked the doctor. "I haven't been very regular," admitted the patient. "To tell the truth, doctor, I'm too busy to bother with those exercises. Can't you give me some kind of pills instead?"

The doctor happened to be a very independent practitioner. "Young man," he said, "you are just one of several hundred fools among my patients who are too busy to be healthy. If you want pills you can go elsewhere for them. I've given you the best medicine I know."

Too busy to be healthy! Over how many sick beds there might be written. "This patient was too busy to be healthy." On how many tombstones - if truth and tombstones were not such utter strangers - there might be engraved, "He was too busy to keep on living."

Another strenuous young business man has had to give up a splendid position and take a complete rest for a year. It meant large loss of money and opportunity, but the doctor declared that the probable alternative would be lifelong invalidism. Twelve years ago when this man started upon his business career he was perfectly strong and healthy. Now what do you suppose has been the cause of this unhappy change? Simply that he was too busy to eat.

Cold bites gobbled at his desk when he needed a hearty hot meal, and prolonged fasts when he was too busy for even that cold bite, have been the order of the day for twelve years. What wonder that his stomach finally became too busy making trouble to have time to work for him!

Woods Hutchinson says we all need at least three hours out of door exercise a day. I wonder how many of us are too busy to take it? Probably about nine out of ten.

Most of us need to drink more water than we do. We are just too ridiculously busy to remember to perform this perfectly natural act.

Remember, the man who is too busy to be healthy is also too busy to be happy, too busy to be a good companion and too busy to be as efficient as he should be.

Are you?

Household Notes.

To remove scorch stain, wet it and expose to the sunshine.

Celery is a good nerve tonic and it is said to ward off rheumatism.

Grass stains can be removed if rubbed with molasses and washed carefully.

When frying apples or bananas, try using olive oil; it is much better than butter fat.

Marvels can be done with the old portieres, couch and table covers, by dyeing them a new shade.

If the contents of the garbage can are drenched with kerosene daily, it will discourage the flies.

If a few drops of paraffin are applied to a cut, it will give instant relief and also assist it to heal.

Don't forget that if you leave non-safety matches about, mice may nibble them and start a fire.

One yard of sheeting will make a pair of pillow cases, and will cost much less than pillow tubing.

A piece bag made of mosquito netting enables one by a look to find the particular roll of goods desired.

Spirits of turpentine will remove most spots from silk, but care must be taken to be sure that the dye is fast.

A long box, stood on end on casters, fitted with shelves and a screen door, is a convenience in the kitchen or cellar.

When washing one-piece dresses, hang them over a coat hanger to dry; they will dry evenly and hang much straighter.

Several thicknesses of disks cut from discarded kitchen oilcloth make good mats for flower pots in the various windows.

To sharpen a knife, fold a piece of emery paper in the centre and draw the knife rapidly back and forth several times.

Do not use soap in washing windows. Clear warm water with a little kerosene or ammonia added will give a high polish.

Don't forget to stop the clocks when going away for the summer; it is bad for the springs if they are allowed to run down.

It is best to clean windows on a cloudy day, as the sunshine dries the water too quickly, and the window is apt to be streaked.

Summer bed spreads should be made of material easily washed, nothing is prettier than the inexpensive dimitie or madras.

One way of making the guest chamber appear home-like is to have a vase of fresh flowers on the desk and another on the bureau.

Never turn your faucets on with a jerk. Turn slowly and gently when turning the water on or off. The faucets will wear twice as long.

It is a good idea to put the freshly laundered sheets at the bottom of the pile in the linen closet. This makes it possible to give the sheets equal wear.

On your return from vacation, don't forget to let the water run for some minutes; it will put you on the safe side as regards water microbes.

When closing the house for a vacation, don't forget to leave the fires ready laid for lighting. Don't forget the cat and don't lock it in.

Could Not Find Cocos Treasure.

Another Party In Quest of the $18,000,000 Buried in South Sea's Island Return Disgusted.

Failure of another expedition sent in quest of the legendary $18,000,000 treasure cache on Cocos Island, in the South Seas, was recorded when the British steamer Melmore put into San Francisco recently. These fabled millions, according to a dying sailor, were buried on Cocos Island by officials of the Peruvian Church early last century. Mrs. Barry Till and Miss Davis, English women, were told by the sailor on his deathbed of his knowledge of the location of the cache, and he supplied them with charts. The women succeeded in interesting British capitalists and the Melmore was purchased for an expedition. Mrs. Till and Miss Davis accompanied the party and directed the operations of the fortune hunters. After many weary months of labor with pick and shovel, the searchers gave up their quest and started homeward. The Melmore put in at Panama, where the two women and others of the party left the vessel to proceed homeward by the most direct route. Within the last fifty years half a dozen expeditions equipped with ample funds have been dispatched to Cocos Island to search for gold.

A shield-shaped piece of cambric sewed under the arms of corset covers where they usually wear first, is a good idea.

Items of Interest

Rev. Father Hawkins, of Bonne Bay, Nfld., was in town over Sunday, and preached at the 10.30 service in St. Joseph's Cathedral. It was his first appearance before a North Sydney audience, and those who had the pleasure of listening to his able and telling address pronounce it one of the best ever heard in St. Joseph's. The Rev. gentleman is a native of Devonshire, England, and in his present charge has a territory of some seventy miles on the bleak western coast of Newfoundland to attend to.

A jury in New York recently awarded $12,500 to Miss Ida Newlands, a nurse of Kingston, Ont., in her suit for $50,000 against John W. Butler, a millionaire club man, living at the Ansonia. Butler is the owner of the Kathadin, an apartment house on Riverside drive. On January 19, 1912, Miss Newlands was attending a patient at the apartment house when she walked into the elevator shaft, the doors having been left open. She fell to the basement and so injured her right arm that she will never be able to bend it.

Martin Ryan picked up a fortune of several thousand dollars the other day at Sussex, N.B., when he discovered a fox den with four pups. One of the youngsters was a genuine black and the owner is happy in proportion to the number of thousand dollars he is being offered for his find. Ryan made the discovery near his home a few days ago. After locating the den he had little trouble in getting the pups but could not induce the mother to return to the den. He took the pups home and is raising them. So far the little foxes have shown no evidence of discontent and the owner is confident that all danger of losing his find is past.

Marianza Lanza, 17 years old, for thirty-three hours the bride of Maseno Godanolo, shot herself through the heart with her father's revolver in Montreal recently. The motive for her act is attributed to a letter which she received in the morning a few hours after her marriage to Godanolo. She tore the missive into bits after reading it and gave no information to anyone as to its contents.

Bound in a casket-like box to protect his back, which is broken just above the hips, Eugene Thayer, of Assiniboia, Sask., has just finished a 1,000 mile journey to St. Paul, where he hopes to find relief. Thayer was injured Feb. 22, and was taken to Moosejaw, where physicians told him he might be able to obtain aid in Minnesota. The journey was made in a special compartment in a baggage car, with the patient strapped in a box.
