TO-DAY'S Messages.

10.00 A.M.

CASUALTIES FOR JULY.

LONDON, To-day.
British casualties report for the month of July in all war areas totaled 7,084 officers and 52,591 men.

RUSSIANS HAVE CROSSED THE STOKHOD.

LONDON, To-day.
Russian troops advancing towards Kovel, have crossed the Stokhod between the Sarny Kovel and Kovel Kojliche railroads, says a Reuters Petrograd correspondent.

MEXICAN BANDITS.

EL PASO, To-day.
Two Americans were killed and one wounded in a clash with Mexican bandits who had crossed the Rio Grande, five miles below Fort Hancock. There were five bandits in the party; all were killed.

RELIEF TO POLAND.

WASHINGTON, To-day.
United States Ambassador Sharpe at Paris, cabled to the State Department to-day that France had acquiesced in the recent note of Britain offering to permit shipments of American relief supplies into the portions of Poland occupied by German forces on condition that the occupying armies would not seize or remove native food products.

GREAT BRITAIN FIRM.

WASHINGTON, To-day.
Britain in a note made public by the State Department to-day reiterates her refusal to permit Red Cross supplies to enter territory controlled by the German Allies unless assigned to Red Cross units. The communication is accepted as virtually closing the negotiations by which the States endeavored to get supplies through despite the recent withdrawal of the Red Cross units.

LONDON BUDGET.

LONDON, To-day.
The Allies maintain unceasing pressure both on the western and eastern fronts as well as on the Italian fronts. Heavy battles are being fought in all theatres. The British and French started a fresh combined attack on Sunday from Deville Wood on the Somme, and made dogged progress which brought them near the village of Maurepas. The misty weather which has hindered operations has given place to clear skies, with intense heat. The Germans are making determined counter attacks and officially claim that the Allies have not gained a foot of ground by Sunday's attack. The Russians are continuing their success despite the strongest German resistance and are pressing closer to Kovel. According to last night's news, they are across the Stokhod over the stretch between the Kovel-Sarny and Kovel railroads. General Letchitsky is moving again, and working toward Stanislan, another important railway centre.

AERIAL ACTIVITY.

LONDON, To-day.
An official from British headquarters in France, issued to-night reads: There was no infantry fighting on the British front and no incident of importance occurred. The Royal Flying Corps carried out severe bombing raids. It dropped seven tons of bombs on the enemy communications; a train was blown up, an ammunition depot set on fire and a hospital aeroplane on the ground destroyed. There were many air combats; several enemy machines were driven to the ground in a damaged condition; three of our machines are missing.

AIRSHIPS RAID ENGLAND.

LONDON, To-day.
The eastern and southern counties of England had a visit from German airships last night. An official communication just issued says, an attack by a number of hostile airships developed before midnight. Four raiders are reported having crossed the coast line along the eastern and southeastern counties. Bombs were dropped off the Thames Estuary.

HUGE DEATH TOLL FROM FIRES.

HAILEYBURY, Ont., To-day.
From latest reports received from the fire sweep area in Northern Ontario, the death tolls are placed at 240.

SUCCESSOR TO BIRRELL.

LONDON, To-day.
Henry Edward Duke, Barrister and Unionist member was to-day appointed to be the new Chief Secretary for Ireland in succession to Augustine Birrell. The new Chief Secretary will be given a seat in the Cabinet. No new Lord Lieutenant of Ireland will be appointed to succeed Lord Wimbome, who resigned after the outbreak of the Dublin rebellion.

CHINESE REVOLUTION.

PEKIN, To-day.
In revolutionary Hankow last night, a large district was burned and looted and many natives were killed. Some Russian women were injured before foreign volunteers checked the uprising.

WILL BRING GERMAN CRIMINALS TO BOOK.

LONDON, To-day.
It appears true that Capt. Frayatt was murdered by the Germans, said Premier Asquith in the Commons yesterday afternoon, in reply to a question by Sir Edward Carson, leader of the Ulster Unionists. The British Government, the Premier added, heard with deep indignation of this atrocious crime against the law of nations and usage of war. Coming as it does with the lawless cruelty to the population of Lille and other occupied portions of France, it shows the German high command, under stress of military defeat, has renewed its policy of terrorism. It is impossible to conjecture to what further atrocities they may proceed, but the Government desires to repeat most emphatically their resolve when the time comes, these crimes shall not go unpunished. When the time arrives they are determined to bring to justice criminals, whoever they may be and in whatever positions. In a case such as this, the men who authorized the system under which the crime was committed, may well be the most guilty of all. The question of immediate action is engaging the earnest attention of the Government. I hope to make an announcement shortly. Sir Edward Carson suggested that the House should pass a bill making it clear that Britain would refuse to admit German prisoners unless they were many into the county of nations until such crimes were explained. Premier Asquith said he would consider the matter.

VERY GOOD IDEALS.

LONDON, To-day.
The complete establishment of the independence of Belgium and Holland and the democratic union of the Balkan States were points unanimously agreed upon at the opening of the International Socialist Conference at the Hague yesterday.

VERY GOOD IDEALS.

LONDON, To-day.

AIRSHIP FIRED UPON.

LONDON, To-day.

One of the Zeppelin airships which raided the eastern and southeast counties of England last night was picked up by searchlights and heavily fired upon, says a southeast coast correspondent. It is believed that the airship was hit, as she appeared to stop, tremble and then dive.

WHY ITALY AND GERMANY ARE NOT AT WAR.

PARIS, To-day.

The only reason which has so far prevented Germany from declaring war on Italy, says the Petit Parisien, is a commercial treaty signed between the two countries in 1891 and renewed in 1907. This treaty subordinated Italy to Germany economically, according to the paper, and was considered of the greatest importance by Germany. The Parisien says that it understands Italy has now denounced this treaty and thereby left the way clear for a declaration of hostilities.

GOOD NEWS IF TRUE.

LONDON, To-day.

General Count Von Bothmer's army is reported to be almost enveloped by the Russians in Galicia, says a despatch from Rome. Cossack divisions after the occupying of Brody are said to have destroyed the railways behind the Austrian army.

Six Lives Crushed Out in Auto-Car Collision.

Automobile, Running Forty Miles an Hour, Wrecked by Trolley.

Detroit, Mich., July 28.—Six lives were crushed out in a collision between an automobile and a big inter-urban car at a point about twenty miles west of this city late this afternoon. The names of the victims are, Frederick W. Knuth, Mrs. Julia Knuth, his wife, Christina Knuth, daughter, aged 10; August Knuth, 23, son; Mrs. Francis Knuth, mother-in-law, and wife of August Knuth, aged 23. The chauffeur's name is uncertain.

The Knuth's party had spent a happy day out in the country and were on their way home when the accident occurred. The roadway for several miles out parallels the right of way of the inter-urban line, and as the big touring car raced along at 40 miles an hour there was no thought of danger. Then, as the inter-urban came into sight running at top speed, something seemed to go wrong with the automobile. The chauffeur was seen to tug frantically first at his wheel, then at the brakes. Suddenly the automobile leaped squarely onto the tracks directly in the path of the rushing car.

So great was the impact that eyewitnesses declared the automobile flattened out like a pancake against the front of the inter-urban while the six occupants were literally ground to bits between the steel shod wheels. Everyone of the bodies was so terribly mangled that in most cases identification was made only by means of the clothing or articles carried.

Offertory Collection For Red Cross Fund.

There will doubtless be a large congregation at the Cathedral to-morrow morning attending the Requiem High Mass for the souls of the soldiers and sailors who have died since the commencement of the war. His Excellency the Governor and Lady Davidson will attend. The Mass will be sung by His Lordship Bishop Power of St. George's. His Lordship Bishop March of Harbor Grace will also take part, and at the close a short address will be delivered by His Grace Archbishop Roche. The offertory collection is expected to be exceptionally large, as it is to be devoted to the Red Cross Fund.

To Be Deprived of British Honors.

LONDON, July 27.—According to the Daily Mail, it is expected that Premier Asquith will announce in the House of Commons that three Germans who still hold British titles of nobility are to be deprived of their British honors. They are the Duke of Albany, the Duke of Cumberland, who are in line of accession to the British throne, although remotely, and Prince Albert of Schleswig-Holstein.
