Breaks all Records

photoplay "Back Home and Broke," which George Ade wrote for Thomas Meighan, and which was shown at the Majestic Theatre last The picture is said to have more laughs to the reel than any film ever made by Paramount. It also has more well known small town characters crammed into it in true Ade style than most pictures of a more or less rural type.

And it has a, banquet, not the Broadway variety with professional dancers and cigarette-smoking women, but a small town banquet to celebrate the hero's homecoming to Bradford. Tom Redding, having proved himself a success in spite of the gloomy predictions of his townsmen, has invited all his friends and enemies to a feast, so that he may repay each accoding to his deserts. The assemblage includes the newly appointed chief of police, the town banker, the leading merchant, the friendly newsboy, the editor of the paper, the unofficial news gatherer, Aggie Twaddle, the fickle sweetheart and her new "crush," the factory foreman, and Tom's faithful sweetheart, Mary

His guests are comfortable or uneasy according to their treatment of Tom before he became a millionaire, but when the food is served by the colored waiter brought in for the occasion, all apprehension is forgotten in the pleasure of eating and having a wholesome, small town good time. Lila Lee is leading woman.

A special feature of the attraction was the performance of the Imperial Orchestra which rendered appropriate music and added greatly in the interpretation of the many impressive scenes. To-night the feature will be reneated.

Misses McShane and Havill are due to arrive Thursday when a violin and singing act of merit is promised.

Concert and Dance

IN AID OF NIGHT SCHOOL.

A delightful concert, followed by short dance, was held in the Star of the Sea Club Rooms last night, which was attended by an appreciative audience. The concert was held under the direction of Miss Eva Harris and Mr. J. Canning, and amongst those who kindly assisted were the following:-Misses Harris, O'Brien, Fitzpatrick, Haves, McGrath, Vaughan, Redstone, Howlett, McNamara, O'-Neill, Primm; Messrs. O. Greene, J. Canning, M .Calton and G. Neary. The programme consisted of songs, recitations, violin and instrumental duets and solos. All of which were rendered in a very pleasing manner. The Rev. Director of the night school, thanked those present for their patronage, the artists, who so willingly gave of their services, the C.C.C. Orchestra, the Star of the Sea Association, for the use of their rooms, and the Ladies' Auxiliary for the valuable assistance rendered. It was announced that the annual treat for the boys attending the school would take place on Thursday evening next, at seven o'clock. Dancing was indulged in for the remainder of the evening, the musical numbers being furnished by the C.C.C. Orchestra. The proceeds, which were quite up to expectations, go to the aid of the Night School

Performance Had to be Postponed

CALL MERITS GENEROUS RE-SPONSE.

Mount Cashel's performance of 'Abe's Irish Rose" for to-night, had to be postponed until to-morrow evening. The sale of tickets for this evening is so small that the management consider it altogether inadvisable to produce the play to-night. The good work of the Christian Brothers is so deservedly and generally appreciated that the small advance sale came as a great surprise. That this was due to the numerous repetitions of the play, and prior engagements, is undoubtable. But the thousands of boys who owe so much to the Christian Brothers and the community generally, which their work has so greatly benefitted, have only to be reminded that help is needed, to accord it gladly and generously.

The total receipts without any deductions are for Mount Cashel. The show for Wednesday night is one of the best comedies ever written. Help the cause and enjoy an evening of undiluted merriment. Thursday's performance is the best of its kind ever experienced here.

Come on friends of Mount Cashel and keep Hubert Hutton busy selling tickets for to-morrow and Thursday Going? Sure, to the St. Andrew's Grand Dance Thursday, May 8th. Tickets: Double, $2.00; Ladies', $1.00; Gent's, $1.50.
