Town and County News

The annual communication of the Grand Masonic Lodge of Quebec opened on Wednesday at Montreal.

FALL SHOW.—Amaranth Fall Show will be held on Tuesday, 13th October, at the village of Whitlington, when over $200 will be awarded as prizes.

A meeting took place in Clifford on Wednesday evening, 23rd inst., at which resolutions were passed in favor of the Stratford and Lake Huron Railway.

HARDHATTERS VS. MAPLE LEAF.—A championship game will be played at the base ball grounds to-morrow (Saturday) between the above clubs. The visitors come from Oakland. A good game is expected.

ARM BROKEN.—On Wednesday, 23rd inst., as a young man named Thomas Baker was attempting to put a belt on a large pulley adjoining the fly-wheel in Dowling & Leighton's planing mill, Hariston, his arm was caught between the pulley and belt, throwing him with great violence against the fly-wheel, which was in full motion, thereby breaking his arm.

BASE BALL WITH THE TEUMESHS.—We have seen a letter sent to the Maple Leaf Club by the Secretary of the Teumesh Club, London, in which regret is expressed that the Club were unable to fulfil their engagement to play on Tuesday last, and offering to pay all expenses incurred. The Teumeshs also express a willingness to play the game on a day to be chosen by the Maple Leaf Club.

SONS OF TEMPERANCE.—The following are the officers for the ensuing quarter, elected at the meeting of Guelph Division Sons of Temperance, on Thursday evening:—W. P., Rev. Bro. Dr. Davidson; W. A., Bro. A. Riddell; R. S., Bro. W. H. Pearce; A. R. S., Sister A. McNaughton; F. S., Bro. F. Curtis; T. Sister M. Dollar; Chap., Rev. Bro. Howie; C., Bro. W. Colson; A. C., Sister M. McNaughton; I. S., Bro. W. Brownlow; O. S., Bro. H. Fold.

ACCIDENT IN GALT.—A man named Nicholas Kinsman while engaged in shingling a new stone house, which he is building on his "Pine Hill" property, near Galt, slipped and fell to the ground, a distance of about fourteen feet. An examination showed that the collar-bone was broken, some of his ribs badly wrenched or broken, and his breast bone bruised.

ACCIDENT AT HARRISTON.—An accident of a painful nature occurred at Hariston on Tuesday, 22nd inst. As two men, named Johnston, Mullen and John Brown were loading a car at the W., G. and B. station there, with heavy planks, one of the heavy sticks slipped off the top of the load, and falling, caught Mr. Mullen's shoulder and elbow between it and another plank, thereby inflicting serious injury.

THE KIDNAPPING CASE.—Mr. Charles Barker, whose departure for Toronto was mentioned on Wednesday, returned on Thursday night. His search since Wednesday noon for his missing son, Walter, has been unavailing. The police authorities in the Queen City are kept busy watching the burglars and pick-pockets who have taken up quarters there, and have no time to look for the lost boy. Mr. Barker had therefore to prosecute his search alone, and the chances of finding his son in such an immense crowd were necessarily poor. However, he succeeded in tracking the blind finder who carried the boy off, and found him at the Exhibition grounds. When the man was questioned, he acknowledged taking Walter from home, stating that the boy had remained with him from Monday morning till Thursday morning, when he strayed away. The father of the boy endeavored to have the man arrested, but owing to the absence of the Police Magistrate, as well as other difficulties, he did not succeed. Where the boy has strayed to, left alone as he was in such a throng of people, cannot be even conjectured. A description of him was left at the Police Station, and a promise was given that he would be immediately sent home to Guelph if found. He wore dark pants, a brown overcoat and a Scotch cap when carried off on Monday.

Presentation to Conductor Quirk, of the W. G. and B. Railway.

On Thursday evening a number of brethren from the Masonic Lodges in Guelph, St. George, Galt, Elora and other places along the line of the W. G. and B. R., met at Alma Lodge, Galt, for the purpose of making a presentation to Bro. John Quirk, of Ferguson. Conductor Quirk had charge of the train which carried the Masonic excursionists to Southampton recently, and his courtesy on that occasion, as well as his usual obliging manner, won for him many friends, and prompted the gift with which the brethren presented him.

After the reading of an address by R. W. Bro. John Cavers, Bro. Quirk was made the recipient of an elegant gold chain and locket. Bro. Cavers being assisted in the presentation by R. W. D. D. G. M. Bro. Savage, of Elora, P. D. D. G. M. Bro. Klotz, of Preston, Bro. W. S. Burnett, of Galt. After a brief and appropriate reply by Bro. Quirk, in which he expressed his sincerest thanks for the confidence and esteem which had suggested the gift, the company sat down to an excellent supper, which had been gotten up by Bro. J. Hetherington, who catered in his usual excellent style. A very enjoyable time was spent by the brethren, and after a "feast of reason and a banquet of soul" the company re-

Guelph Young Men's Christian Association.

The business meeting preceding the Fifth Annual Meeting of the Guelph Y. M. C. A. was held on Thursday evening last. The attendance was very small, and it is to be regretted that the members do not feel that a great measure of the success of the Association depends on a large attendance at the business meetings. The Chairman of the Standing Committee presented their annual reports, and though in some respects they were not so good as they ought to have been, yet, remembering the difficulties they have had to contend against—chiefly financial—they are in a great measure encouraged. We give a brief synopsis of them, so that the public and members may know what the Association has done, and have been trying to do for the past year.

The Financial Report was not presented in full, as the Treasurer, Mr. Maroon, was absent, and the Chairman of the Committee could not make up full returns. The report showed, however, that the Association feels very much the need of money to help in its work of benevolence.

The Room and Library Committee reported that it was a little over a year since they first occupied the present rooms, and during that time efforts had been made to make the Rooms cheerful and attractive. New pictures had been hung on the walls, side tables placed in the reading room, folding doors put in, the windows altered to allow good ventilation and new blinds and house plants obtained, giving it a home-like and cheerful appearance. A very beautiful and attractive lamp had been presented to the Association by some of the members to hang over the front door. The reading room, which is free, is well supplied with books and periodicals. In closing their report the Committee hoped that the members would use the library more and induce their acquaintances to do so also.

The Literary Committee in presenting their report regretted very much that this department of the work had been greatly neglected. Though the material in the way of Lectures, Essays, &c., had been above the average, the meetings, in consequence of the non-attendance of the members, had been comparatively a failure. They had introduced a new feature in holding free social gatherings, which were much appreciated. There had been two lectures during the winter—a concert from the Vesellius Sisters, and a very pleasant and profitable anniversary in the Town Hall. The Committee much regretted the small attendance at the weekly meetings, and hoped that in future the members would make an endeavor to come.

The Reception Committee reported that they had found no difficulty in procuring places for delegates visiting the Association and for those who had come to lecture.

The Mission Committee reported that although the financial aspect of the Association had not been bright or encouraging, the spiritual interest had never been so lively as during the past year. God had indeed blessed their labors in this part of the work for the Master. The Sunday evening prayer meeting had been well attended, the average attendance being one hundred, though as many as two hundred had been present in some of the meetings.

The Sunday during the time the volunteers were in camp Lieut. McCrae, of the Battery, and a vice-president of the Association, held a bible class which was followed by a praise meeting. In closing their long report, the Committee trusted that God's blessing would be invoked on the work during the coming year and that all who took part in it might be blessed with a gracious revival in answer to their prayers.

The Tract Committee reported that at the beginning of the year 15 members were engaged in this work, and many of the members when travelling on business took a bundle of tracts with them and distributed on the cars. In these ways between 8,000 and 9,000 tracts had been circulated during the past year. They prayed God would own these silent messengers, and through this means would bring peace to many a wayward heart.

The Executive Committee held 9 meetings during the year, had visited the Fergus Association twice, Berlin twice, Elora twice, once to form the latter Association. They took this opportunity of thanking the ladies for their efforts in their behalf. The Committee finding very little use for the rooms upstairs had rented them to the Sons of Temperance. In submitting their report the Committee hoped the members would take a still greater interest in the several branches of Christian labor in which the Association was engaged, and that they would come forward and work in the departments to which their abilities and talents peculiarly adapted them.

The Directors will meet this (Friday) evening to make out their annual report. It is hoped the members will bear in mind that on Thursday evening next the Annual meeting will be held for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year. Let all endeavor to be present.

A three year old colt belonging to Mr. D. Findlay, of Salem, was playing in a field a short time ago with another colt, when it stumbled and fell, breaking its

The New Bell for St. Bartholomew's R. C. Church.

SERVICES AT THE CHRISTENING.

The bell that has done service since 1854 in the tower of St. Bartholomew's Church, on the Catholic Hill, was cracked on the 17th April last, by the undue strain occasioned by two funerals and a fire which occurred on that day. It remained in the tower until a few days ago, when it was taken down to give place to a new one, the effort to remedy the defect having failed. Workmen were engaged who cut an aperture in the line of the crack about an inch wide, but this homoeopathic process of curing the crack by making another, and a larger one, was not successful. An order was therefore sent to the Troy foundry for a new bell, and it was immediately cast and forwarded. It weighs 2,013 lbs., is pitched in the key of F sharp, and bears the inscription "Maria Immaculata est memum nomen, Guelph, Ont., Pio IX, 1874." It cost $1,000.

The old bell weighed 1,667 lbs. and was of the same tone. It has been heard at a distance of fifteen miles, and it is presumed that the notes of the new one, with its extra dimensions, will be heard even farther than that.

Bishop Crinmon, of Hamilton, was invited to perform the ceremony of christening the new bell, and on Wednesday evening a deputation, occupying about 20 carriages, met him at the G. W. R. Station and escorted him to the parsonage.

On Thursday morning, shortly after nine, a large congregation assembled in the chapel to witness the christening services, which were commenced by the entrance of a number of boys and girls from the schools singing the Litany. After they had taken places on either side of the gallery, a procession of boys in uniform entered the chapel, carrying a cross and tapers, followed by Bishop Crinmon, the Rev. Mr. Lennon, the Bishop's Secretary, and Revs. Joseph Loyance, Parish Priest, John Holzer, Louis Jouin, Francis Dumortier, and Father Clemens, Little Germany.

At the altar Father Loyance presented the Bishop with the following address, on behalf of the clergy:—

My Lord—On the day of your first official visit to Guelph allow me in all simplicity to express publicly our sentiments of gratitude and love of respect and obedience to your Lordship, whom we acknowledge as the representative of the Vicar of Christ on earth. Therefore in the name of our good Catholic people of Guelph, I wish your Lordship a sincere and happy welcome and say with the Apostle Saint John, Benedictus qui venit in nomine Domini. We know that the visit of the first Pastor to a parish brings always abundant blessings from Heaven. May you, therefore, my lord, like another Moses, on the Catholic Hill of Guelph, implore and obtain from Heaven all the temporal and spiritual blessings of which we stand in need. May the sound of this new bell, Mary Immaculate, which your Lordship is going to bless this day, awake many sinners and infidels who sleep the sleep of death: may this new bell sound soon the victory of Christ over his enemies, the complete triumph of the Church over its persecutors, and call soon the people of Guelph to sing a grand Te Deum in thanksgiving to God for his numerous blessings; may the sound of this new bell be heard by the heads of all the Christian families of Guelph, to remind them of the sacred duty imposed upon them to send their children to school, to catechism and to Mass. My Lord, we bless Divine Providence for having given us a holy pastor, full of zeal and charity, learning and wisdom, who will look after the stray sheep and watch over the flock. We know, my Lord, that already you have taken steps, blessed with happy results, to multiply the evangelical laborers in the Diocese of Hamilton: May God in his mercy, My Lord, bless your holy and happy days of all works and merits, "ad plurimos annos vivat Reverendissimus Dominus." My Lord, such are the blessings we will daily beg of God to bestow upon your ecclesiastical administration, which we have every reason to believe will be a glory to the church, the salvation of many, and a sure title to a brilliant and immortal crown in heaven for your Lordship. May God hear our prayers.

Rev. Father and Christian Friends:

For the address with which you have presented me, I assure you I return my sincere and grateful thanks, and I am very glad and very happy, my dear friends, that my first visit from Hamilton has been to Guelph. You are acknowledged by all as the glory of God's Church, and you are a fear and terror to God's enemies. My dear friends, I have become a Bishop in the spirit of obedience to the Vicar of Christ on earth, the glorious Pius the Ninth. I had my fear and trembling when taking the office, but I know that God will assist me. I have brought nothing to the office save a good will to do what I can, and may God help me. The good Father has alighted to my exertions in regard to the priests over this diocese. It was my first object to secure good ministers for the Churches under my charge, and for this reason I went to Ireland to procure for you pastors, and I am glad you have become so attached to the one over you. We have now ready prepared for the priesthood, eighteen or nineteen young men, who will in a few years, I trust, fill the ministry. In regard to my visit in Ireland, I am happy to inform you that I found the Church there in a very flourishing state. I saw some Bishops who were going out to Australia; I met some from New Zealand, and every part of the English-speaking world. The Church in Ireland exerts a great influence in propagating the glory of Christ throughout the Christian world. It is a grand and glorious work. The lamp of faith is shining more and more brightly. By the extraordinary ways of Providence, the wonderful ways of God, the very means that were intended to destroy that faith have been the means of propagating it happy to find a good spirit between you and your pastor, and I hope it will continue. In such union lies our strength. Divided we are nothing, but united, we do that which can do wonderful things for God.

A religious service was then conducted by Father Loyance, during which Bishop Crinmon delivered a sermon, of which the following is a synopsis:—

Sacrifice, said the speaker, is impressed more deeply upon the heart of man by God than any other form of worship. Thus we find him in all ages offering sacrifices to his Creator. The sons of Adam offered sacrifices, and along the stream of time, we find Noah and all the patriarchs worshipping God by sacrifice. Melchisedec offered sacrifices, and we read in the Gospel that Christ was a priest after the order of Melchisedec. But these sacrifices were simply types and figures of that one great sacrifice, Christ our Lord and Saviour, comes down from Heaven, clothes divinity with flesh and blood, and then He makes infinite satisfaction. How great is the act! God alone, as God, could not do it, because he is not capable of suffering, but taking up our humanity then he gives infinite satisfaction.

After the celebration of Mass, the ancient prophecies were fulfilled, types and figures gave way to the great reality; the Father was satisfied; all was finished. God ordained that that great sacrifice should continue to be offered for those who have lived since, and for the millions yet unborn. It is an act of our ever, for the reason of the sacrifice only that sacrifice really and truly, the same priest and the same victim offered on calvary, and this act of faith rests upon God's infallible, God's merciful Word, and Christ says "I am the living bread came down from heaven; if any man eat of this bread he shall live forever, and this bread is my flesh for the life of the world." When the Jews became alarmed at this saying, Christ answered, "Unless you eat of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you can have no life in you. They that eat my flesh and drink my blood are in me and I in them." Christ reserved the adorable sacrifice until the night of His passion. Taking the bread He raised His eyes to God His Father, brake and blessed it, and said to His disciples "Take of this, for this is my flesh that is given for you."

In like manner He took the cup saying "This is my blood shed for you and for many for the remission of sins. This do in remembrance of me." You will see that this holy mass at which you assist is the continuation of the sacrifice of Christ, fulfilling the glorious prophecy: "In every place there is offered a clean oblation, a glorious sacrifice." See how this is fulfilled in the Catholic Church. After the world from the rising to the setting of the sun, priests are calling out to God and offering sacrifices. How great should be our love for Him who sends us these blessings, and how faithful we should be to come to mass every day if possible! What a consolation my dear friends, that we have the privilege of coming here where, from the world's bustle and turmoil, we can retire for a few moments, kneel down at God's holy altar and open our souls to God, and expose the wounds that sin has inflicted. If we do this, God will make us strong in His service and will say "My son, be of good cheer, thy sins are forgiven thee."

After the celebration of Mass, the Bishop and Clergy proceeded to the entrance of the chapel, where the bell was suspended. After a service in Latin, His Lordship sprinkled and anointed the new bell, the congregation viewing the ceremonies from the inside of the chapel. A short service in Latin followed this, at which the congregation moved to the outside of the chapel. While they were passing out, the Bishop took hold of the rope attached to the tongue of the bell, and rang it once. He was followed by the sponsors, whose names are as follows:—Mr. John Harris, Mr. John McQuillan, Mr. Jas. May's Mr. Michael Caraher, Mr. M. J. Doran, Mr. James Keogh, jun., Mr. John Harris, Mrs. Jas. McQuillan, Mrs. E. O'Donnell, Mrs. Thomas Hefferan, Mrs. Thomas Coghlan, Mrs. T. O'Connor Mr. Jas. Hazleton, Mr. Wm. O'Connor, Mr. E. McEldeiry, Mrs. T. J. Day.

When the congregation had reached the outside, Mr. Harris addressed the Bishop. He said—My Lord, on behalf of the Catholic people of Guelph, I desire to tender you a hearty welcome. I pray Almighty God to bless you and give you health and strength to perform your arduous duties, and hope that you may be long spared to pres
