is attending Toronto University, has been elected by acclamation to the office of rooms about 1:45 p.m.

pleasure resort on Thanksgiving Day, and were more than pleased with the beautiful scenery afforded by the Medway. The many lovely walks which it possesses would well repay the sightseer for any time or trouble expended in visiting them.

—Those having business with the Police Court this morning and entering at 10 had dropped around earlier than usual and disposed of half a dozen drunks and one vagrant, Catherine Hastings, who was sent down for two months.

—Messrs. Dan Stewart, J. H. Clarke and H. McCall, of London, were here this week

Dan says they saved the express charges, anyway. (Aston Free Press.)

—The Dutton Advance says that a number of persons from London and vicinity erected a tent on Dr. Teskey's farm, considered a trespass, and prepared for a few days' royal out against them by the Dutton Gun Club, and a fine of $1 and costs imposed on one of the hunters. The party has since removed to Aliborough.

—Miss Bella Grive, daughter of Mr.
Elliot Grive, of Pond Mills, fractured her right arm on Thursday evening. Mr.
Grive and his daughter were returning home from the Dale school house on the one side of the road in front of a farmer's team. Owing to the darkness of the night he drove over the end of a culvert, Miss Grive's many friends will be glad to hear she is doing nicely.

—A lad named Bayly, living in East London, went on a shooting expedition the other day with three companions. When near Dorchester Station he tried to fire off a revolver, without success and commenced to examine it. The weapon was unexpectedly discharged, the bullet going through occurrence from the opposite side of the river, and with Mr. H. Shaw's assistance kindly carried the boy to the station and sent him home. Two of his companions had left him.

The Farmers' Gathering.
A large attendance of farmers is expected at the annual meeting of the East Middlesex Institute to be held in the Court House in this city on Saturday, Nov. 15, at 1 p.m. After the election of officers Mr. J.

"Legislation required to prevent the formation of trusts and combines." Hon. John Dryden, M.P.P., Ontario Minister of Agriculture, and Hon. John Carling, Minister of Education for the Dominion, have been invited to be present. Mr. Robson's paper is likely to awaken a stirring discussion, as the subject is of vital and general importance.

Youthful Mission-Workers.
Rev. Canon Davis presided at a concert given last evening by the junior branch of the Young People's Helping Mission Band in connection with St. James' Church, South London. A large audience encouraged the youthful members, who rendered a programme of creditable merit, consisting of choruses by the band, recitations by Dot. McElheran, Freda P. P. P. P., V.
Wallace, Eddie McGill, Minnie Dewar, Gordon Hunt and Clara O'Neil; piano solos by Neta McLaren and Misses Clara O'Neil, Elsie Green and Neta Hunt taking part in the first. Misses Jennie and Clara Hoar and Maggie Baird in the second, and the third, entitled "The Flies of All Nations," by the band. Miss Grigg played the piano very acceptably. The band is in a flourishing condition, having increased in membership from 13, when organized in 1887, to 93 at present; and its annual income from $35 the first year to $200 25 in 1890. The officers are: Miss Hunt, president; Miss Grigg, first vice-president; Miss Flo White, treasurer; Miss Annie Foster, and Bertha Marshall secretaries.

The Little Tycoon.
After a couple of weeks eager expectancy the London public were last evening given the first opportunity of seeing Willard Spencer's comic opera, "The Little Tycoon." To attempt to describe the meritorious details of the performance would be too great a task, and that it was fully equal, if not superior, to any other comic opera that has been produced here will be saying but the truth. Miss Millard as Violet and Miss Lucretia as Dolly were very captivating, while J. H. Ryer in the leading role of General Knickerbocker was really splendid.
In the repertoire of comic opera there are three works that have achieved remarkable success in America; one is "The Little Tycoon," the second is "Pinafore" and the third is "Erminie." The chorus is beautifully drilled, sings with much vim, and goes through the frequent and odd maneuvers with plenty of grace and spirit.
The orchestra, under the able direction of Mr. Charles E. Borgman, was most efficient.
The time and labor all during yesterday, were in smooth working order, and proving a valuable addition. This evening the opera will be repeated, and those desiring to witness a first-class performance should go.

Smokers Should Read.
London is well known throughout Canada particularly as the city from which the celebrated "Highland Lassie" cigar is shipped to all parts of the Dominion from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Messrs.
H. McKay & Co., the manufacturers, take a special pride in this 5-cent cigar.
It has been carefully tested by the majority of the smokers of the country, on the market, and the best composition, and when smoked, it convinces the most sceptical of its superiority.
Messrs. H. McKay & Co.'s immense establishment, with its products, is a credit to the city.
