WILL TAKE

A LONG REST

Wilhelmina to Seek Health

at the South.

A Regent To Be Appointed by the States-General.

American Board of Foreign Missions

Receives Confirmation of Report That Miss Stone Is at Liberty.

London, Feb. 25.—The correspondent of the Daily Telegraph at The Hague says in a dispatch that he understands that the physicians of Queen Wilhelmina have recommended her to take a prolonged rest in the south to restore her health. The correspondent also says that the states general will be convened to appoint a regent during her absence.

MISS STONE'S RELEASE.

A dispatch has been received at Constantinople announcing that Miss Stone and Mme. Tsilka are now at Strumitza, 14 hours' ride on horse back from the nearest station of the Salonika Uskub Railway. Miss Stone is suffering from the strain of the past six months, and is unable to take the horseback trip. Miss Stone and Mme. Tsilka will probably be compelled to rest at Strumitza for a few days, and then it is hoped to bring them from Salonika to Constantinople.

At Boston the American Board of Foreign Missions late yesterday afternoon received cablegram from its representative, W. W. Peet, sent from Yenitli, Bulgaria, saying "Stone's deliverance completed. Inform friends."

ALL FOR RAIN.

According to the Sydney correspondent of the Daily Mail, New South Wales is now experiencing its seventh year of almost continuous drought. The government has proclaimed that as a day of humiliation and prayer. The government has proclaimed that as a day to be a general holiday, so all business will be suspended.

DENIES THE REPORT.

A news agency at London denies that the Welsh settlers in Patagonia expressed any desire to leave that country.

The correspondent of the Daily Mail cabling from Buenos Ayres says that the Welsh in the Chubut district have named the government that they have no desire to leave Argentina. Canadians here, outside the officials are now wondering where the scheme of transferring the Welsh from Patagonia to Canada originated.

BIG BILL FOR WHITE-LAID REID.

White-laid Reid, of New York, special ambassador to the coronation of King Edward, is negotiating with the government of the United States for the coronation season. Curzon House, Curzon street, is one of the most magnificent of London's houses and has been recently thoroughly redecorated and modernized. Earl Howe has been asking an extravagant rent ($25,000 for the season) and seemed to be very hard on the matter.

NEW YORK MILITARY POWER.

Owing to the number of railroad employees who are joining the strikers, and also on account of the fear of a general strike on the railroads, the Italian government has issued a decree calling to the colors all railroad employees in Italy who belong to the mobile and territorial army. The men will thus be barred from military control, while continuing their duties.

CONCESSION TO GERMANY.

A dispatch to the Times, from Peking, says that Prince Ching, head of the Chinese foreign office, has been prevailed upon to consent to an agreement with Germany for the exclusive mining rights in the Shantung Province. The royalty for China is to be seven instead of five per cent. The agreement is not yet signed. Germany is very active. She has established a postoffice in the capital city of Shantung.

PRINCE HENRY'S VISIT.

The visit of Prince Henry of Prussia to the United States, starting at 9:30, in London in Paris, and there is a large of iron in the newspapers' comments, which betray some feeling of pique at the enthusiasm of his reception. The Times says: "This time it is not the iron glove but the hand in the glove of silk and velvet that is the subject of the day."

It is somewhat significant that the Washington birthday fetes passed almost unperceived among the brilliance of the reception of the prince who represents one of the monarchies of effete Europe. The great republic is launched in the very midst of the international melee and no longer has time to devote to self to the jealous and almost exclusive worship of the glorious memories of its history.

The Journal des Debats remarks: "The Americans must see in Prince Henry's flattering visit, fresh proof of the eagerness of the powers of the old world to worship the rising sun of this young and powerful republic, which some of them formerly treated as a parvenu, but before whom the powers today vie with each other in prostrating themselves."

PEELING AT BERLIN.

Berlin, Feb. 24.—The narratives of the reception of Prince Henry at New York cover one and two pages in today's Standard and there is a large of iron in the newspapers' comments, which betray some feeling of pique at the enthusiasm of his reception. The Times says: "This time it is not the iron glove but the hand in the glove of silk and velvet that is the subject of the day."
