A CURIOUS CASE AFTERMATH OF BEFORE THE JUDGE EASTWOOD WRECK

An Innocent Indian Pleading Investigation in Progress—An Guilty to Stealing a Horse.

An extraordinary case came before French, an Indian living in Strathroy, with stealing a gray mare and buggy from his premises. Horse-stealing is a very serious offense, and the punishment for it may run as high as six or trouble about the consequences honor said that the evidence taken by the squire was not sufficient to convict. He asked the prisoner whether he desired to be tried by a jury, and explained the serious nature of the case, for Keshago's understanding did not seem to be very bright. He said very laconically that he would be tried by Judge Macbeth right on the spot. When asked how he would plead his answer was the one word, "Guilty." His honor was surprised at the Indian's apparent unconcern. After reading the evidence, the judge said he would not accept the prisoner's plea. He advised him to get a lawyer and think over the matter. His honor and

THE ASSIZE COURT

Two More Cases Added to Already Heavy Docket.

The already long docket for the assizes has been increased by two more cases. An insurance broker, G. G. Pritchard, claims $2,500 damages from the Canada, Furniture Manufacturers, and J. W. G. Winnett. He alleges that defendants assaulted him and caused him to be imprisoned without good cause. Rachel Thompson, of Moraviantown, wants $1,000 from John Berdan, Strathroy. Plaintiff alleges that defendant promised after she had served him as housekeeper for some time, to give her $1,000 on the occasion of her marriage.
