ISIMON PRESIDENT OF HAYTIEN REPUBLIC

Leader of Victorious Rebel Army the Unanimous Choice.

Port-au-Prince, Dec. 8. - The political situation is clearing. During the recent interview here between General Simon, the leader of the revolutionary movement that resulted in the flight of afternoon for the fourth day of the Nord Alexis from the capital, and Gen- liquor cases, to hear evidence in the eral Fouchard, an aspirant to the pres- third charge against Crook, Mr. Tucker idency, who arrived vesterday at the head of a band of followers, the latter said that as "God had blessed the arms of General Simon" he withdrew his Oborne, superintendent of the C. P. R., candidacy in order that the possibility Toronto, stating that the company of civil war be averted. The proclamation of General Simon as president of the republic was then decided upon. It is felt here that if General Simon proceeds in accordance with the constitution, it will soon be possible to bring together the National Assembly. All the senators and deputies at present in Port-au-Prince are convinced that the elecion of General Simon by a large majority is assured. General Simon yesterday afternoon took possession of the national palace-He was received at the entrance by General Alphone, commandant of the guard, amid the acclamations of the people and the soldiers.

ICALLING TRAINMEN IN OWEN SOUND CASE

C. P. R. Declined to Interfere and Defence Asked That Subpoenas

Be Issued. Owen Sound. Dec. 8.-When the magistrate opened court yesterday (counsel for the defence) stated that he had received a telegram from Mr. would not interfere in the liquor cases, and that if he wanted the train crews to give evidence he must subpoena them in the ordinary way.

Mr. Tucker asked that no decision be given in the Crook charges until these men were brought. The Magistrate-If they come and you do not call them I'll draw my own conclusions. Mr. Tucker then asked that subpoenas be issued for members of the train crew. If they are not here by Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, the magistrate declared he would go on

The only thing to substantiate such without provisions and being miles from human habitation, perished from exposure in the woods. The steamer J. H. H. Brown, which went down to-2 night, reports on her up trip a week 0 ago, that she parted company with 0 the Clemson at Whitefish Point, taking the northern course, while the 28 Clemson took the southern. This would bring the Clemson or the route where the wreck evidently cate that the boat was not wrecked on the north shore. So far none of the wreckage has been identified. The captain of the Brown says the storm which swept the lakes was the worst ever experienced and being acclassification of the civil service under about 75 miles beyond Whitefish. The recommendation of the civil service and as she was running on southern
