

All the Arguments Are in favor of having your clothes made by us.

O. LABELLE & CO. 246 RICHMOND STREET.

The Hardware Let us help you to solve the gift problem!

RUSSIA HAMMERED BRASS Round and Oval-shaped Fern Pans, Jardinieres, etc.

W. B. GILLESPIE & CO. 204 DUNDAS ST.

NATHAN GRIFFITH (Successor to D. A. Stewart) The Leading Funeral Director and Embalmer

SMITH, SON & CLARKE UNDERTAKERS 115 DUNDAS ST.

JOHN FERGUSON & SONS FUNERAL DIRECTORS. 40 KING STREET, PHONES 514, 117

Logan & Ball Funeral Directors 418 RICHMOND ST. PHONE 1583

R. K. COWAN BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, ETC. Why Get Tanned or Sunburnt?

McCALLUM'S Drug Store Remember the Red Front, 124 DUNDAS STREET, half block east of old stand.

JOHNSTON BROS. XXX BUTTER BREAD To have the best supplies for the table is a rule of good housekeeping.

LONDON LOAN & SAVINGS COMPANY OF CANADA 220 DUNDAS STREET

REMOVED REMOVED REMOVED NEWBURY NEWS. July 12.—Miss Jessie Gray returned to Detroit.

July 12.—Mr. George Gray returned from the west on Tuesday, after a very pleasant trip.

July 12.—Mrs. George Gray returned from the west on Tuesday, after a very pleasant trip.

July 12.—Miss Anna Gordon left on Saturday to spend her holidays in Clinton.

July 12.—Mrs. Alex. Armstrong returned on Tuesday after a delightful trip to Dresden, Sarina, and other points.

July 12.—Mrs. M. W. Armstrong has returned after a two weeks' visit in Chatham.

July 12.—Mrs. S. D. Jamieson left on Saturday for a month's holidays.

July 12.—Miss Anna Gordon left on Saturday to spend her holidays in Clinton.

July 12.—Mrs. Alex. Armstrong returned on Tuesday after a delightful trip to Dresden, Sarina, and other points.

July 12.—Mrs. M. W. Armstrong has returned after a two weeks' visit in Chatham.

July 12.—Mrs. S. D. Jamieson left on Saturday for a month's holidays.

July 12.—Miss Anna Gordon left on Saturday to spend her holidays in Clinton.

July 12.—Mrs. Alex. Armstrong returned on Tuesday after a delightful trip to Dresden, Sarina, and other points.

July 12.—Mrs. M. W. Armstrong has returned after a two weeks' visit in Chatham.

July 12.—Mrs. S. D. Jamieson left on Saturday for a month's holidays.

Order Hamilton's Hamilton's Porter is fully aged. It is the best.

Order Hamilton's THOS. WILSON Merchant Tailor, 212 Dundas Street.

Fresh Mined Screened Scranton Coal Quality the best; quantity, 2,000 pounds to ton.

WEBSTER & KERNOHAN PHONE 1383. Odd Things Not Found Elsewhere

LITTLE FINGER RINGS For the summer girl—Coral, Jade, Epidote and Turquoise Matrix.

THOS. GILLEAN 402 RICHMOND STREET. Our Bins Are Filled With a Bright, Clean, New Stock

MAY BROS. 685 York St. Phone 1224.

D. H. GILLIES & SON 274 Dundas street, represents them, and solicits your inquiry.

JOHNSTON BROS. XXX BUTTER BREAD To have the best supplies for the table is a rule of good housekeeping.

LONDON LOAN & SAVINGS COMPANY OF CANADA 220 DUNDAS STREET

REMOVED REMOVED REMOVED NEWBURY NEWS. July 12.—Miss Jessie Gray returned to Detroit.

July 12.—Mr. George Gray returned from the west on Tuesday, after a very pleasant trip.

July 12.—Mrs. George Gray returned from the west on Tuesday, after a very pleasant trip.

July 12.—Miss Anna Gordon left on Saturday to spend her holidays in Clinton.

July 12.—Mrs. Alex. Armstrong returned on Tuesday after a delightful trip to Dresden, Sarina, and other points.

July 12.—Mrs. M. W. Armstrong has returned after a two weeks' visit in Chatham.

July 12.—Mrs. S. D. Jamieson left on Saturday for a month's holidays.

July 12.—Miss Anna Gordon left on Saturday to spend her holidays in Clinton.

July 12.—Mrs. Alex. Armstrong returned on Tuesday after a delightful trip to Dresden, Sarina, and other points.

July 12.—Mrs. M. W. Armstrong has returned after a two weeks' visit in Chatham.

July 12.—Mrs. S. D. Jamieson left on Saturday for a month's holidays.

July 12.—Miss Anna Gordon left on Saturday to spend her holidays in Clinton.

July 12.—Mrs. Alex. Armstrong returned on Tuesday after a delightful trip to Dresden, Sarina, and other points.

July 12.—Mrs. M. W. Armstrong has returned after a two weeks' visit in Chatham.

July 12.—Mrs. S. D. Jamieson left on Saturday for a month's holidays.

July 12.—Miss Anna Gordon left on Saturday to spend her holidays in Clinton.

July 12.—Mrs. Alex. Armstrong returned on Tuesday after a delightful trip to Dresden, Sarina, and other points.

July 12.—Mrs. M. W. Armstrong has returned after a two weeks' visit in Chatham.

Up-Town Office Closed Till September. Phone 470, or call at 425 York cor. Burwell St.

John Mann & Sons COAL, COKE, CEMENT.

Parnell's Bread Why not try our famous BREAD?

PHONES 929 and 1390. The unpleasantness of chapped hands and lips by using Dermaline.

Cairncross & Lawrence Chemists and Druggists. 216 Dundas St., London, Ont.

BANKS FEAR ATTACK BY AIRSHIP BANDITS Bags of Sand Placed on Roof Would Prevent Destruction by Bombs.

London, July 12.—A Billingsgate lon dealer by the name of Newby attended the general court of the proprietors of the Bank of England and asked as to the security of $200,000,000 of gold in coin and ingots in the bank vaults from attack by airships.

London, July 12.—It looks as if people were really getting afraid of the famous blue Hope diamond.

Paris, July 12.—It looks as if people were really getting afraid of the famous blue Hope diamond.

Paris, July 12.—It looks as if people were really getting afraid of the famous blue Hope diamond.

Paris, July 12.—It looks as if people were really getting afraid of the famous blue Hope diamond.

Paris, July 12.—It looks as if people were really getting afraid of the famous blue Hope diamond.

Paris, July 12.—It looks as if people were really getting afraid of the famous blue Hope diamond.

Paris, July 12.—It looks as if people were really getting afraid of the famous blue Hope diamond.

Paris, July 12.—It looks as if people were really getting afraid of the famous blue Hope diamond.

Paris, July 12.—It looks as if people were really getting afraid of the famous blue Hope diamond.

Paris, July 12.—It looks as if people were really getting afraid of the famous blue Hope diamond.

Paris, July 12.—It looks as if people were really getting afraid of the famous blue Hope diamond.

Paris, July 12.—It looks as if people were really getting afraid of the famous blue Hope diamond.

Paris, July 12.—It looks as if people were really getting afraid of the famous blue Hope diamond.

Paris, July 12.—It looks as if people were really getting afraid of the famous blue Hope diamond.

Paris, July 12.—It looks as if people were really getting afraid of the famous blue Hope diamond.

Paris, July 12.—It looks as if people were really getting afraid of the famous blue Hope diamond.

Paris, July 12.—It looks as if people were really getting afraid of the famous blue Hope diamond.

Paris, July 12.—It looks as if people were really getting afraid of the famous blue Hope diamond.

Paris, July 12.—It looks as if people were really getting afraid of the famous blue Hope diamond.

Paris, July 12.—It looks as if people were really getting afraid of the famous blue Hope diamond.

Paris, July 12.—It looks as if people were really getting afraid of the famous blue Hope diamond.

THE KAISER INSULTS POET HEINE'S MEMORY The Emperor's Revenge on the Poet's Statue Arouses German Wrath.

London, July 12.—Literary and artistic Germany has just been deeply stirred by an action on the part of Emperor William which appears to be a wanton insult to the memory of one of Germany's great men; one, indeed, who (if the judgment of intellectual people all over the world be consulted), reflects the brightest glory on his country as a home of letters.

London, July 12.—Literary and artistic Germany has just been deeply stirred by an action on the part of Emperor William which appears to be a wanton insult to the memory of one of Germany's great men; one, indeed, who (if the judgment of intellectual people all over the world be consulted), reflects the brightest glory on his country as a home of letters.

London, July 12.—Literary and artistic Germany has just been deeply stirred by an action on the part of Emperor William which appears to be a wanton insult to the memory of one of Germany's great men; one, indeed, who (if the judgment of intellectual people all over the world be consulted), reflects the brightest glory on his country as a home of letters.

London, July 12.—Literary and artistic Germany has just been deeply stirred by an action on the part of Emperor William which appears to be a wanton insult to the memory of one of Germany's great men; one, indeed, who (if the judgment of intellectual people all over the world be consulted), reflects the brightest glory on his country as a home of letters.

London, July 12.—Literary and artistic Germany has just been deeply stirred by an action on the part of Emperor William which appears to be a wanton insult to the memory of one of Germany's great men; one, indeed, who (if the judgment of intellectual people all over the world be consulted), reflects the brightest glory on his country as a home of letters.

London, July 12.—Literary and artistic Germany has just been deeply stirred by an action on the part of Emperor William which appears to be a wanton insult to the memory of one of Germany's great men; one, indeed, who (if the judgment of intellectual people all over the world be consulted), reflects the brightest glory on his country as a home of letters.

London, July 12.—Literary and artistic Germany has just been deeply stirred by an action on the part of Emperor William which appears to be a wanton insult to the memory of one of Germany's great men; one, indeed, who (if the judgment of intellectual people all over the world be consulted), reflects the brightest glory on his country as a home of letters.

London, July 12.—Literary and artistic Germany has just been deeply stirred by an action on the part of Emperor William which appears to be a wanton insult to the memory of one of Germany's great men; one, indeed, who (if the judgment of intellectual people all over the world be consulted), reflects the brightest glory on his country as a home of letters.

London, July 12.—Literary and artistic Germany has just been deeply stirred by an action on the part of Emperor William which appears to be a wanton insult to the memory of one of Germany's great men; one, indeed, who (if the judgment of intellectual people all over the world be consulted), reflects the brightest glory on his country as a home of letters.

London, July 12.—Literary and artistic Germany has just been deeply stirred by an action on the part of Emperor William which appears to be a wanton insult to the memory of one of Germany's great men; one, indeed, who (if the judgment of intellectual people all over the world be consulted), reflects the brightest glory on his country as a home of letters.

London, July 12.—Literary and artistic Germany has just been deeply stirred by an action on the part of Emperor William which appears to be a wanton insult to the memory of one of Germany's great men; one, indeed, who (if the judgment of intellectual people all over the world be consulted), reflects the brightest glory on his country as a home of letters.

London, July 12.—Literary and artistic Germany has just been deeply stirred by an action on the part of Emperor William which appears to be a wanton insult to the memory of one of Germany's great men; one, indeed, who (if the judgment of intellectual people all over the world be consulted), reflects the brightest glory on his country as a home of letters.

London, July 12.—Literary and artistic Germany has just been deeply stirred by an action on the part of Emperor William which appears to be a wanton insult to the memory of one of Germany's great men; one, indeed, who (if the judgment of intellectual people all over the world be consulted), reflects the brightest glory on his country as a home of letters.

London, July 12.—Literary and artistic Germany has just been deeply stirred by an action on the part of Emperor William which appears to be a wanton insult to the memory of one of Germany's great men; one, indeed, who (if the judgment of intellectual people all over the world be consulted), reflects the brightest glory on his country as a home of letters.

London, July 12.—Literary and artistic Germany has just been deeply stirred by an action on the part of Emperor William which appears to be a wanton insult to the memory of one of Germany's great men; one, indeed, who (if the judgment of intellectual people all over the world be consulted), reflects the brightest glory on his country as a home of letters.

London, July 12.—Literary and artistic Germany has just been deeply stirred by an action on the part of Emperor William which appears to be a wanton insult to the memory of one of Germany's great men; one, indeed, who (if the judgment of intellectual people all over the world be consulted), reflects the brightest glory on his country as a home of letters.

London, July 12.—Literary and artistic Germany has just been deeply stirred by an action on the part of Emperor William which appears to be a wanton insult to the memory of one of Germany's great men; one, indeed, who (if the judgment of intellectual people all over the world be consulted), reflects the brightest glory on his country as a home of letters.

London, July 12.—Literary and artistic Germany has just been deeply stirred by an action on the part of Emperor William which appears to be a wanton insult to the memory of one of Germany's great men; one, indeed, who (if the judgment of intellectual people all over the world be consulted), reflects the brightest glory on his country as a home of letters.

London, July 12.—Literary and artistic Germany has just been deeply stirred by an action on the part of Emperor William which appears to be a wanton insult to the memory of one of Germany's great men; one, indeed, who (if the judgment of intellectual people all over the world be consulted), reflects the brightest glory on his country as a home of letters.

London, July 12.—Literary and artistic Germany has just been deeply stirred by an action on the part of Emperor William which appears to be a wanton insult to the memory of one of Germany's great men; one, indeed, who (if the judgment of intellectual people all over the world be consulted), reflects the brightest glory on his country as a home of letters.

London, July 12.—Literary and artistic Germany has just been deeply stirred by an action on the part of Emperor William which appears to be a wanton insult to the memory of one of Germany's great men; one, indeed, who (if the judgment of intellectual people all over the world be consulted), reflects the brightest glory on his country as a home of letters.

London, July 12.—Literary and artistic Germany has just been deeply stirred by an action on the part of Emperor William which appears to be a wanton insult to the memory of one of Germany's great men; one, indeed, who (if the judgment of intellectual people all over the world be consulted), reflects the brightest glory on his country as a home of letters.

London, July 12.—Literary and artistic Germany has just been deeply stirred by an action on the part of Emperor William which appears to be a wanton insult to the memory of one of Germany's great men; one, indeed, who (if the judgment of intellectual people all over the world be consulted), reflects the brightest glory on his country as a home of letters.

London, July 12.—Literary and artistic Germany has just been deeply stirred by an action on the part of Emperor William which appears to be a wanton insult to the memory of one of Germany's great men; one, indeed, who (if the judgment of intellectual people all over the world be consulted), reflects the brightest glory on his country as a home of letters.

London, July 12.—Literary and artistic Germany has just been deeply stirred by an action on the part of Emperor William which appears to be a wanton insult to the memory of one of Germany's great men; one, indeed, who (if the judgment of intellectual people all over the world be consulted), reflects the brightest glory on his country as a home of letters.

London, July 12.—Literary and artistic Germany has just been deeply stirred by an action on the part of Emperor William which appears to be a wanton insult to the memory of one of Germany's great men; one, indeed, who (if the judgment of intellectual people all over the world be consulted), reflects the brightest glory on his country as a home of letters.

London, July 12.—Literary and artistic Germany has just been deeply stirred by an action on the part of Emperor William which appears to be a wanton insult to the memory of one of Germany's great men; one, indeed, who (if the judgment of intellectual people all over the world be consulted), reflects the brightest glory on his country as a home of letters.

THE MORRISON SHOE CO. Travelling Goods For the Vacation

Our stock, which is one of the largest in Western Ontario, was never more complete than at the present time, and the prices are within the reach of all.

Iron-covered Trunks, hardwood slats, brass lock, from... $1.49. Waterproof canvas-covered Trunks, hardwood slats, brass lock and catches... $1.98.

Men's Gray Canvas Lace Boots, leather tip... 79c. Boys' Gray Canvas Lace Boots, leather tip... 69c.

These are all new, dependable goods, bought for this season's trade. No old, odd or damaged stock.

Compare these quotations with any 'sale' prices, then come, investigate and let us prove our claim to SAVE YOU MONEY.

The Morrison Shoe Co. 123 Dundas St. and 8 Market Square

FALL EXHIBITIONS Dates Arranged For Fairs in Western Ontario and Other Sections.

Abbey's Effervescent Salt puts you right for the whole day.

Our Debentures Relieve Anxiety A debenture investment in this company is so safe that it eliminates all anxiety common with other forms of investment.

The Ontario Loan and Debenture Co. 123 DUNDAS ST. MARKET LANE. A.M. SMART, MGR.