most satisfactory solution of the question of defence.
"The House will cordially approve of any necessary expenditure designed to promote the speedy organization of a Canadian naval service, in co-operation with and in close relation to the imperial navy, along lines suggested by the admiralty at the last imperial conference, and in full sympathy with the view that the naval supremacy of Britain is essential to the security of commerce, the safety of the empire, and the peace of the world. The House expresses its firm conviction that whenever the need arises the Canadian people will be found ready and willing to make any sacrifice that is required to give to the imperial authorities the most loyal and hearty co-operation in every movement for the maintenance of the integrity and the
