M'EVOY AND BEATTIE NOMINATED EAST MIDDLESEX NOMINATION TODAY TO CONTEST SEAT FOR LONDON Dr.Routledge Will Oppose Mr.

Only a Few People Were Present in the City Hall When the Papers Were Handed to Mr. Ivey.

Mr. John Miller McEvoy, barrister, Liberal, and Major Thomas Beattie, gentleman, Conservative, were today nominated to contest the riding of London in the coming elections.

The nominations were the quietest in the history of the city. There was no speaking whatever, only a handful of people being present at the city

It was expected that there would be a discussion of the issue. Some time ago Mr. McEvoy made a proposition to Major Beattie, that a joint meeting be held to take up the questions coming before the electors. The invitation was evaded, and it appeared that no meeting would be held. At noon Major Beattle announced that he would be present. However, the major did not put in an appearance at the hall, and some of his friends declared that he had again changed his mind. Mr. McEvoy Present.

o'clock Mr. C. H. Ivey the returning McEvov and Major Reattle had been nominated, and adjourned the meet-time, ready to speak.

Formerly the nomination meeting was the big day during the election campaign. The old city hall would be cheering crowd. However, things have apparently changed. It must not be forgotten, however, that the Western Fair was an attraction that could not be resisted by the citizens generally, and those who could get away from work are spending their time there. Major Beattle put his nomination papers in first. They were signed by Mr. McEvoy's Signatures.

At 1:30 o'clock, Mr. McEvoy handed in his. They were signed by 35 leading manufacturers and labor men. Among those who signed them F. G. RUMBALL, manufacturer.

DR. MACDONALD ON RECIPROCITY

Tonight in the Jubilee Rink, Dr. J. A. Macdonald, editor of the Toronto Globe, will address the electors of At a meeting of No. 3 committee heid last night, Mr. John Beattie, of 197 Ottaway avenue, asked that the Junk area be extended so as to include the south side of Bathurst street from Maitland to William. The members present took a favorable view of the petition, and recommended to the council that the bylaw be amended to include this section. Mr. Beattie is a real estate man, who is representing the owners in the matter.

Superintendent Glaubitz was present, and explained the lighting system. He informed the committee that the best possible was being done to provide lighting for the city. It would take time to build it up to a perfect system, but the commissioners were doing all that could be done under the circumstances. All the lights agreed to had not been placed up, as the commissioners wanted to discover what the system was costing each year.

AT THE WESTERN FAIR TODAY

Visitors Include a Gentleman From Clandeboye Who Is 97 Years of Age-Directors Point Out That Number of Protests This Year Is Remarkably Small.

The farmers swarmed to Queen's park yesterday, and by smashing the attendance regords, made it appear that all the tillers of the soil of the district with their families, were at the great exhibition, but when the ticket men opened up at the Fair Grounds this morning they were greeted with a rush that augured well for the breaking of more records.

About as many of the rural population as attended Wednesday, the day specially set aside for them, struck the town this morning, and by noon the park was filled with thousands, but before 1 o'clock the rush commenced in earnest, the city people, including the school children, who have a holiday, today, filing through the gates in thousands.

An Aged Visitor.

A visitor, who has been looked for each year, and who is now approaching the century mark, was again on the grounds today. Mr. T. Collins, of Clandeboye, is the gentleman, and although 97 years of age, he is in excellent health and enjoying himself. He interrupted his work of painting and repairing his home to attend the Fair. While in the city Mr. Collins is visiting at 274 Piccadilly street.

Yesterday it was estimated that over 35,000 people were on the grounds, but it is expected that insumber will be exceeded before nightfall by between ten and fifteen thousand.

The Directors Meet.

The Fair officials and directors are immensely pleased with the smooth manner in which the show is proceeding and despite the fact that in other years many protests were received from New York this week on his coast-to-coast flight.
