St. Thomas, Aug. 30 .- A good story is told on a well known local baseball bug. "Glad" Graney, the St. Thomas boy who plays in the outfield for the Cleveland American League club, has been home for several weeks, nursing a dislocated shoulder. During his stay, like many ball players, he was hounded for opinions on different players, etc. Graney, like mos men engaged in the business, does not like to talk baseball, being of a rather modest and quiet disposition. The fan referred to, howover, had made himself R.H.E. a pest by seeking the player and asking questions. He is a great admirer of Louis Bier-Batteries-Billiard, Whithouse, Mullin bauer, the Tecumsehs' smart first baseman, and while batting them out one day last week with some fans, in a By innings—
