SEATTLE, Oct. 18.—Capt. P. T. Deering, and Chief T. J. Heoney, of the United States marine inspectors...

President Joshua Green, of the Navigation company, stated before the board that he had been assured by Inspector Whitney that only one licensed mate was necessary on the vessels.

The matter was submitted without argument for the sake of a ruling and the board decided to follow the suggestion of Inspector John Bermingham, at San Francisco.

Steam Freighter Grainer Brings News of Death of Unknown Young Man Saturday Night.

Dropping through a hole in the wharf at Ganges Harbor Saturday night, a young man, 18 years of age, whose name the captain of the steam freighter Grainer would not reveal today, was drowned.

When the man fell his head is believed to have struck a log floating beneath the wharf. The Grainer was lying alongside, and members of her crew caught the man's body with a boat hook and drew it to the surface.

The body's parents, it is said, are dead. He was unknown at Ganges Harbor where his remains now lie in the morgue.

JOHNSON ALL THE WAY, REPORTS MORRISON

By C. L. MORRISON. SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 18.—Jack Johnson failed the prediction of the Johnson writers and other close followers of the fistic game when he knocked Stanley Ketchel, the middleweight and light-heavy weight champion cold in the twelfth round of their battle for the heavyweight championship of the world, at Cotto's arena at Colma. It was a good fight from a spectator's standpoint, although it was Johnson all the way. The big black man outfought and outboxed Ketchel, and won the fight by knocking him out with a clean blow to the jaw, which landed in the twelfth round of the fight. Ketchel played for the jaw throughout the fight, and some of his knock-out punches were felled Johnson like an ox had they connected with the big fellow instead of with the air. In the seventh round Ketchel landed a right flush on the champion's jaw, which raised a big lump, and from that time on the black worked hard to end the fight.

The knock-out was one of the most spectacular ever scored in a local ring. Johnson really landed three separate knock-out punches in such quick succession that the eye could hardly follow the shining ebony forearm beating the glove. The fighters were roughing it in Johnson's corner when the end came. Johnson shook himself free and charged like a bull, head lowered, arms ready for a vicious blow. Ketchel aimed a terrific right at the champion's head, but Johnson caught the blow on his arm and took it heavily. He seemed dazed, and Ketchel backed off to get set for a rush in which the black would knock him down. Johnson gathered himself together, and without waiting for Ketchel to bring the fighting to him, fairly hit him himself across the jaw with his left hand, and followed it with a left to the stomach. As Ketchel reeled backward, Johnson caught him in the face with another right jab, and the fight was over. In fact, it was terribly over, for one of the last three blows was a clean knock-out.

SOUND STEAMERS VIOLATE RULES

Indianapolis, Chippewa, Iroquois and Others Carry Only One Mate When Licenses Call For Two.

SEATTLE, Oct. 18.—Capt. P. T. Deering, and Chief T. J. Heoney, of the United States marine inspectors, are investigating the violation of the rules of the Iroquois, Chippewa, Rosalie, Indianapolis, Whetmore and Watales, all belonging to the Pacific Navigation company, guilty of violating marine regulations by having only one licensed mate on board when their certificates called for two.

President Joshua Green, of the Navigation company, stated before the board that he had been assured by Inspector Whitney that only one licensed mate was necessary on the vessels.

The matter was submitted without argument for the sake of a ruling and the board decided to follow the suggestion of Inspector John Bermingham, at San Francisco.

Westminster and the surrounding municipalities. Ten days ago New Westminster folk were astounded to receive the news from Ottawa that their reserve of land around the lake, held for several years, had been cancelled.

The meeting was so warm that several times the chairman had to call for order. Finally the Royal City people declared that they would go to court if compelled to do so and fight it out. A letter from Mr. Oliver of date several months ago was shown, which stated that New Westminster need take no further steps toward recording the reserve, that it was perfectly good receipts for dues were also presented. Mr. Oliver in reply said that if they wanted to they could go to court and that was what the courts were made for.

DISGRACEFUL ROW OVER LACROSSE GAME

NEW WESTMINSTER, Oct. 18.—While Jack Johnson and Stanley Ketchel were battling in San Francisco Saturday, a far more interesting fight was in progress between the rival lacrosse players of New Westminster and Vancouver. Twenty-four husky lacrosse players of New Westminster were lined up in hot blood on each other, the police, and the spectators together, in an awe-inspiring sight, and the fans who had the sense to hide in the grand stand were treated to such a battle royal as has never before been seen on a lacrosse field.

The game went to the home team by a score of 2 to 3 but actual play was only a side issue to the big fight, and the personal encounters of less note throughout the quarters. New Westminster, by a total score of 14 to 7 for the two games, captured the $200 purse offered by the Fair Play club for the series.

TALE OF SUFFERING IN BOTTLE MESSAGE

PORT TOWNSEND, Oct. 18.—A bottle message, picked up in the Strait of Juan de Fuca yesterday, and while shipping circles are investigating, gives an account of the loss at sea in July, 1907, of the gascoline steamer Orient, bound for Seattle, and which became with long contact with salt water. Shipping records available give no accounts of a steamer Orient.

The election of officers resulted as follows: Captain, Miss Aegae; vice-captain, Miss Priestley; secretary, Mrs. E. M. Gregor; Mrs. Sharp and Misses L. Wentborn, C. Shepherd and M. Handie.

Bears Dined Well

A crew of bears did an assessment on the grub pile of the Fernie Coal Syndicate that control a bunch of coal lands near the North Kootenay Pass in Alberta. The commissariat forage was pocketed and ginchod out.

Mystralian Wild Man.

Brook Moran and Billy Taylor, who have been hunting up the Kootenay river for the past week, returned hence on Wednesday evening. They were quite successful in bringing back a lot of fine specimens of the feathered tribe, but report that they could find no trace of the wild man, who was reported to be at large.

Advice to Girls

Some of our pretty little girls seem quite fond of our cunning little boys, who whose lips the first appearance of what will in the course of time be a mousethroat, and they are really imperiling the lives of these youths by keeping them out so late in the evenings. Girls, remember that little boys should always go to bed early.—Toseland Miner.

Duel in Forest

Deer meat is plentiful at Erickson these days, a station three miles east of Creston, says the Nelson News. A couple of days ago Murdock McLeod, the Erickson merchant, and Messrs. Littlejohn and Elliott were out hunting when they suddenly came upon four fine deer, two bucks and two does. The bucks were fighting a duel and their female companions were witnessing the deadly battle just as the three hunters came unexpectedly upon them.

Campbell's THE FASHION CENTER 1010 GOVERNMENT STREET We Ourselves the Better Serve by Serving Others Best. Display Extraordinary In Evening And Reception Gowns—Opera And Restaurant Cloaks

Never before have we been able to make such a beautiful display in these charming and most exclusive garments, imported from the leading European centers—they are beautiful in the extreme. In Evening and Reception Gowns delightful creations are shown, made up in broche silks, soft moires and other delicate materials. The Parisian styles this season are taken from the time of Charlemagne, 1,100 years ago (graceful and beautiful). In our new show rooms we are prominently displaying a number of gowns from Paris costumiers, especially selected to aptly illustrate the most marked features of the fashion, which though moderate in price are typical examples of how the extreme fashions can be modified to suit refined English ideas. In many of the new gowns the garniture is the most important feature. Yokes, corsages with panels attached. Jet and metal embroideries are used chiefly on a net foundation. Jet is universally fashionable both in form of garnitures and as a straight trimming. Princess Evening Gowns are very popular. The ornamentation on all our gowns are particularly noteworthy. In Evening and Opera Cloaks the assortment is both wide and, as usual with us, exclusive. A great deal of attention has been paid to evening cloaks and wraps and very reasonable prices quoted.

Tomatoes O. K. There has been no frost as yet this year to injure the tomato crops at Creston.

A Weighty Goat. Harry Gorrle shot a mountain goat at Aldrich Creek, weighing about 400 pounds last week, and David and Matt Gorrle shot a fine deer at Jaffray.

Fakir's Success. A street fakir held forth last Tuesday evening, at Moyie, and disposed of the usual amount of junk. As is always the case several were hypnotized by the smooth talk and were "stung."

About Banana Peel. When you see a banana peel resting on the sidewalk and a fat man unconsciously approaching it, the indications are that he will be "slipped."

About Patronage. There is no way of improving a place so much as by encouraging good merchants and good schools, and people to settle among you, and this cannot be done unless you spend your money at home.

Three well directed shots from the rifles of the Erickson marksmen fell three of the four deer and the fourth animal was easily disposed of before making its escape. It is stated that the smallest of these deer weighed 2300 pounds, and all were in fine condition.

Romance in Rhyme. 'Twas twilight and dark, near the city park a maiden sat combing her bright golden hair, when heated with roaming, all panting and foaming there came up and sneezed her a big brown bear. It did not fright her, she bear did not bite her, she lay back and murmured: "O, still lighter dear." This broke up old Bruin, he let his wooling, sneaked back to the mountains and hid for a year.

Westminster Accident. Mrs. Keery, wife of John Keery, a well known farmer of Kensington, was killed by a street car on the Royal Columbian Hospital, New Westminster, suffering from a broken arm, and a number of painful but not serious cuts and bruises, sustained in a runaway accident the other evening. Mr. and Mrs. Keery, with their child, were on their way out of the city when the accident occurred. They were driving in a buggy drawn by a pair of spirited young horses unused to the cars. Just in front of the Burr block the animals took fright at the headlight of an approaching car, and becoming unmanageable, dashed across the tracks right in front of the oncoming car.

May Have Perished. VANCOUVER, Oct. 18.—Three men and one woman, all residents of Vancouver, may have lost their lives in English Bay on the night of August 30, according to a statement made to the provincial police Saturday afternoon by Mrs. C. Hannay, who resides on Bodley street, South Vancouver. In the opinion of the city police, Mrs. Hannay's story points to the death of all four people. Nothing has been heard of the party since they left a wharf in the east end of the city on the night of August 30 in a Columbia river sailboat. The missing men are Robert Hannay, Costello and Blackman. The woman believed to have been a member of the party was the wife of Costello, a fisherman. Blackman is a prospector who had some mineral claims up the coast when he wished Hannay to see, and in order to get there Costello's boat was secured for the trip, the owner sailing her. Not many hours after the departure of the boat a bad storm came up and it is feared that the craft was capsized in the bay.

ST. YVES BREAKS ALL RECORDS IN SEATTLE MARATHON

(Continued from Page 1.) seventeenth Marsh was forced to stop. He had every appearance of having run himself out, while St. Yves was running apparently just as easily and as strong as when he started. When he passed Marsh a mighty cheer went up all over the grounds. In the twentieth mile St. Yves again lapped the field in spite of the persistent spurts made by Marsh, to keep his opponent's lead under two laps. He was unsuccessful, for St. Yves pegged along at his heels, with him and passing him without any trouble. All down the line St. Yves records the twenty mile record being lowered from 1 hour, 57 minutes, 25 4-5 seconds to 1 hour, 52 minutes and 6 2-5 seconds.

In the twenty-third mile, St. Yves lapped Marsh. In the twenty-fourth mile to the surprise of many who had backed St. Yves, he was again lapped. It was the fact that he was in the lead at the end of the race without finishing the mile. He was the only one of the contestants that required the attendance of the hospital through the race, and he was carried into their tent and had reviving stimulants administered to him.

St. Yves' Staying Power. St. Yves beat Marsh by four laps and 2 hours 22 minutes and 22 seconds. He was apparently growing stronger as the race progressed while the other runners were showing signs of distress. He did the twenty-six miles in the New York Marathon in 2 hours 39 minutes and 33 seconds. His time for the same distance yesterday was only 2 hours 22 minutes and 25 seconds. When sent away on the last lap by Mayor Meritt, he flew around as though he was just starting in on the race. The crowd surged in against the ropes lining the course, and he ran the last lap in 44 minutes 2 1-2 seconds, beating the tape for a record of 2 hours 32 minutes and 39 1-5 seconds.

Fitzgerald Gamed. Fitzgerald gamely finished in fourth place, collapsing at the finish line. He won fourth prize. It was his first marathon, but last night he suffered no ill effects from his hard grind. Marsh, it is said, ran a lap too many at the finish, and Rowan is said to have run a couple too many.

St. Yves wins the $500 bonus put up by the backers of the race, Mr. Robert Guggenheim, in addition to first prize of $200 for making a new track record for the Marathon distance. The second prize, $100, is awarded to Marsh, the third prize of $50 to Hayes and the fourth prize of $25 to Fitzgerald.

GREAT INTEREST TAKEN LOCALLY Great interest was taken in the big Seattle Marathon locally. Many Victorians went to the Sound city on Saturday to witness the contest. Yesterday the local telegraph offices were besieged by inquirers and today the telephones of The Evening Post were kept busy with calls from sport fans anxious to hear the details of the event.

Through a mistake in transmission the rumor got about yesterday that John D. Marsh had won the race and admirers of the speedy English-Canadian runner were jubilant. Today the Post received the definite news of St. Yves' wonderful record-smashing effort, and although this removed Johnson's from first place it detracted only slightly from his glory inasmuch as his performance stands alone, considering his age. He ran a slashing race and the fact that he left Johnny Hayes, the much-heralded victor of first place in the Olympic Marathon, in the dust is a tribute to his ability as one of the foremost distance runners of the world.

The news that Fitzgerald, the Calgary man, finished fourth in this, his first Marathon, was welcomed. Fitzgerald deserves great credit for finding a place in the money in a race that went the pace Sunday's race went. The references to Rowan's alleged interference with Johnny Hayes will be taken with a grain of salt, pending more details.

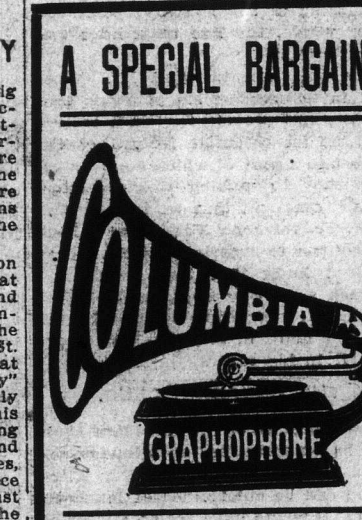

All in all the race was a victory for the runner who failed to appear for the race and who forfeited his money, said today when told of the performance of St. Yves that the little Frenchman was "king of them all." "He must have been in great shape" Burn remarked.

Interest locally now will be directed to the arrangements that are under way for a Marathon here on Thanksgiving Day. The plans are immature yet as the backers of the proposed event are waiting to hear from Seattle for information as to the runners who are willing to enter for a race here. If satisfactory plans can be laid the event will be put on.

Publisher Not Guilty. "Not guilty" was the jury's finding in the locally famous case of Rex V. Hagen, heard at Kamloops. Coupled with this verdict was the following rider: "We, as a jury, strongly believe that proceedings should never have been taken against the accused." Thus ended a suit that has occasioned a great deal of feeling in Revelstoke, and in a milder form, throughout the interior, where the defendant, E. A. Hagen, not known, a large quantity of winter supplies distributed to the miners was destroyed, and it is feared there will be suffering.

SHERIDAN, Wyo., Oct. 18.—Word has reached here of the destruction of the entire mining town of Dillon, Wyo., by fire. The cause of the fire is not known. A large quantity of winter supplies distributed to the miners was destroyed, and it is feared there will be suffering.
