Good Games Now the Order of the Day at the Ball Field. Standing of Teams

Last Friday evening Mechanics and Victorias brought off a schedule game. There was a smaller crowd than usual owing to the counter attraction at the Opera House.
Mechanics had more of a scratch team than the Vics, but the younger players made a pretty healthy wagging tail, McIntyre at left field showing smartness on several occasions.
Umpire McRae handed the game in a masterly fashion though he might be a little firmer in enforcing the rules, and so long as he does he can always rely on having the support of the loyal fans. The star play occurred in the fourth, when Pond squeezed home on the pitchers wind up. Final score, Victorias 8, Mechanics, 6.

wart, 7. Left on bases, Mechanics,

Stewart 1.

The game on Monday evening between I.C.R. and Mechanics was acknowledged on all hands to have been about the best seen at the bawlway t is s on. There was a goodly gathering of the fans present including legal and medical lights and many other magnates of fame, but a large number of the fair and gentle sex were conspicuous by their absence. This was accounted for by the fact that their was another bawl game, scheduled for Inch Ar-ran. At this latter place the aforesaid fair sex would have an opportunity of (as our country correspondents put it) tripping the light fantastic toe. We might here state that a splendid example of such fantastic tripping was given in the third stanza of a thrilling encounter when Professor Philander Potts lost his footing and his degree of A.M. on a desperate dash for the home plate. Cecil got a nasty fall, but was none the worse, although the Mechanics claim that in his contact with sweet Mother Earth, he picked up a horse shoe, and hid it up his mitt.

The game was tight from the start the score at the end of the fifth inning standing 0.0. In the sixth Mersereau, Shirley and Davis were struck out in succession. In the Mechanics half, Cady was safe at first on Davis' error with one out.
Shaddick lined out a hot one putting Cady on third, Bass fled to pitcher.
Wall hit to centre scoring Cady.
Dobson out at first retiring the side.
Woods started the seventh for the Colonials and was safe on Moore's fumble. He stole second and scored on Keith's two bagger to left.
LeBlanc reached the initial sack on an infield hit, and stole second.
Roy struck out. Fairley picked an easy one from Shaddick and smashed the pill through short, scoring Keith and LeBlanc. His inability to slide made him an easy out, trying to pinch the second sack, then Lavoe received free transportation to first, Mersereau retiring the side an easy out at first.

In the last of the seventh, Lloyd was out at first. Patterson put up an infield fly which Davis got low down and Ahearn struck out, the game ending I. C. R. 3, Mechanics, 1.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL CLOSING TODAY

Seventeen Receive Diplomas Largest Number for Some Years.

The closing exercises of Campbellton Grammar School took place today. In the morning the pupils gathered in the large Assembly Hall, which was crammed to its utmost capacity by scholars and friends and was tastefully decorated with flags and streamers of blue and white, the school colors. An interesting program of songs, recitations, etc., was gone through, the younger scholars joining heartily in the singing of the choruses, to the great delight of a large number of parents and friends who were present. The graduating class, which is the largest for some years back, received congratulations and applause on their appearance in the Assembly Hall. Pe-lice Judge Matheson, chairman of the school trustees, presided at the gathering and was supported on the platform by His Honor Judge the kindness of the school was the presenting to each of those taking their certificate a white car-

BAD RUNAWAY AT DALHOUSIE SUNDAY

Five People Thrown out of Rig on Way to Church— One Lady Seriously Injured

Dalhousie, N. B. June 25—There was a bad runaway in Dalhousie on Sunday. Five people on way to church were thrown out and injured. John McEwen, government road commissioner, with three children and Miss Mary McNair, daughter of Wm. McNair of Eel River Cove, when on their way to forenoon service in St. John's Presbyterian church, had an experience never to be forgotten. At the top of the hill above Renfrew street, the harness broke, the young horse took fright and Mr. McEwen who is an expert with horses was thrown out of the carriage. The team went down the big hill like lightning and Miss McNair fainted and fell out in front of the old Delaney hotel dragging one of the children she was holding in her arms with her. Miss McNair fell on her face and was seriously injured. She was quickly picked up by Policeman Boudreau, who saw her fall, and carried to the Nadeau boarding house, and later removed to the home of Mrs. Wm.
Wallace, sister of Mr. McEwen, where she was most kindly treated.
Doctors Ferguson and Disbrow were quickly on the scene and are now hopeful of saving the young girl who is a great favorite and the only daughter at home. The horse continued on the run to the corner of Water street and up to William street running towards the station when the wagon struck a telephone pole freeing the horse from the rig.
Mrs. Daniel McNeish, who resides opposite the Post Office, rescued the only one who held on to the rig a young boy who saved himself by remaining under the wagon seat.
He was found dazed and with a bad cut on his face. The three children were able to return to their homes on Monday, but it will be sometime before Miss McNair can leave the town if she does get better.

MAYOR ANDREW INJURED FRIDAY

Slips on Wet Sidewalk and Falling Heavily Gets a Damaged Ankle

Last Friday evening when Mayor Andrew was returning from the opera house with Mrs. Andrew and a lady friend he met with a painful accident. Proceeding along Water street he heel caught on an uneven part of the concrete sidewalk twisting his ankle, and throwing him heavily to the ground. He was able to move along a little piece with assistance but at the corner of Andrew street he swooned with the pain and was conveyed home in a passing rig. On examination it was found the ankle was not broken but was badly sprained and swollen and will keep His Worship confined to the house for a number of days yet.
On late inquiry the Graphic was informed that the injury was not painful now, and His Worship was making very satisfactory progress toward recovery.

PILGRIM TRAIN OFF THE I.C.R. LINE

Engine and Three Cars Leave the Rails. No Casualties Reported

Word was received here this morning that the second pilgrimage train coming east was derailed somewhere above Beau Rivage, and that the engine and three cars had left the rails. From further information the press were informed that no casualties are reported, and the line would be cleared in a few hours. The Ocean Limited was held up behind the wrecked train and will be five or six hours late in reaching Campbellton. No particulars could be gleaned at the offices of the I.C.R. as to the probable cause of the run off.
