LITERARY NOTICES.

PUBLICATIONS BY

LILLY WAIT & Co. BOSTON.

To Parents, Teachers, School Committees, and all who feel an interest in the Improvement of Youth.

It is only one year since Parley's Magazine was commenced. During that short period the number of subscribers has increased to 9,000 and the work has received every where, the most respectful appreciation. It has found its way to thousands of families, and while it has entertained the social circle, its instructive lessons have, we hope, often had a salutary influence on the juvenile mind and heart. It has also found its way to the school room; and many classes of young pupils have been cheered twice a month by the welcome voice of the teacher bidding them to lay aside, for a few days, the classic book which they have read over and over, perhaps twenty times, and read the pages of Parley's Magazine.

The demand for the work, to be used in schools, is rapidly increasing. Encouraged by such unexampled success, the Publishers resolved to render it still more worthy of a liberal patronage and their exertions will they see it introduced into families and schools, through the whole length and breadth of the United States.

In this view they have secured the aid of the late Editor of the Juvenile Rambler, who has the advantage of many years' experience, not only as a writer for the youth, but as a Teacher.

Among the topics which we propose to present in this volume are the following:
I. Natural History—Beasts, birds, fishes, reptiles, insects, plants, flowers, trees, the human fringe, &c.
II. Biography—Especially of the young.
III. Geography—Aspects of places, manners, manners, &c.
IV. Travels and Voyages, in various parts of the world.
V. Descriptions of the Curiosities of Nature and Art, in the United States, and in other countries.
VI. Lessons on objects around Children in the Nursery, Parlor, Garden, &c. Trades and Employment.
VII. Particular duties of the young—to Parents Teachers, and to themselves.
VIII. Bible Lessons and stories.
IX. Narratives—such as are well authenticated Original Tales.

X. Parables, Fables and Proverbs, where the moral is obvious and excellent.
XI. Poetry—adapted to the youthful capacity and feelings.
XII. Intelligence—Embracing accounts of Juvenile Books, societies, and Remarkable Occurrences.
Many of these subjects will be illustrated by numerous and beautiful engravings prepared by the best artists, and selected not only with a view to adorn the work, but to improve the taste, cultivate the mind, and raise the affections of the young to appropriate and worthy objects. We would make them better children, better brothers, better sisters, better pupils, better associates, and in the end, better citizens.

May we not expect the cooperation of all who receive this Circular in the great work of forming the youthful mind and character? Will you not lend us your aid and influence, in endeavoring to diffuse this work, not only among the schools, parlors, and free libraries, but also among the Ladies' Magazine?

The yearly subscription being but ONE DOLLAR per annum will procure the impracticability of procuring the work in any other manner. It is therefore indispensable that we should require payment in advance.

The price of the Magazine is $1 a year—six copies for $5—twenty copies for $15—or sixty copies for $45. Payment in advance.
Subscriptions for the above received at the Office of the STANDARD.

LADIES BOOK,

A Monthly Magazine, containing Tales, original and selected, Moral and Scientific Essays, Poetry, from the best Authors, the Quarterly representations of Legends, Fashions, adopted in Philadelphia—colored. Music of the newest styles, &c. &c.
Published regularly on the first day of every month.
At No. 3, Atholman Buildings, Franklin Place, Philadelphia, Pa. U.S.A.

Embellished with a beautiful and extensive variety of engravings, from original and selected designs, both coloured and plain, with two engraved title pages, and two distinct indexes, intended to presently for this work, by competent persons specially engaged for that purpose. The Embellishments of this character which have appeared in former numbers, are confessedly superior to any which have been furnished in any other similar American publication, and from the arrangements which have been made, there is every reason to believe they will be improved in the coming volume.
In addition to the Embellishments just referred to, every number contains several engravings on wood, representing foreign and native scenes, curious and interesting subjects, Natural history, Entomology, Mineralogy, Conchology, Humorous incidents, Original Productions, Embroidery, and other useful work. Riding, Dancing &c. besides one or more pieces of popular Music, arranged for the Piano or Guitar.

Every six numbers of the work form an elegant volume suitable for binding and with these are furnished gratuitously a superbly engraved title page and a general index of contents. The Terms of the Ladies Book are $3 in advance. Persons remitting Ten Dollars shall be entitled to four copies of the work. Persons remitting Fifteen Dollars shall be entitled to six copies of the work, and additional copies of the best engravings. Persons procuring Ten New Subscribers, and forwarding the cash for the same, besides a discount of fifteen per cent, shall be presented with a copy of the third volume of the work equally bound.

PROPOSAL

FOR ISSUING A REPRINT OF THE London, Edinburgh, Foreign and Westminister QUARTERLY REVIEWS.

By weekly parts of 48 royal octavo pages, comprising the entire number of these Journals, with their Indexes, in a paper that each work may be bound separately at the end of the year, thus forming four large volumes of nearly 700 pages each, for $5, being the cheapest and most valuable reproduction in this country.

The above journals are already so well known to the public, that little need be said of their respective merits. The well sustained reputation of the first, not only as an able defender of Tory principles, and the old order of things, but as the wisest and most entertaining of Reviews, will always command the attention of the literary and scientific. While the second, celebrated for the rigor, learning and accuracy which its articles display, conducted by some of the principal literary men of the modern Alliance, is an equally powerful champion of the moderate Reform party.

The Foreign Quarterly occupies a central ground in Politics, and is devoted to continental literature.

The Westminster is but little known in this country. It may be considered as the advocate of the Radicals, and the mouth piece of Bentham-ism. It represents the principles of the party already numerous in England, and fast increasing in the United States.

It is proposed to reprint the entire matter of the above works in weekly numbers, of forty eight pages each, enclosed in a substantial cover, with good type and paper, and printed in a manner that each work may be bound separately at the end of the year—forming four octavo volumes, of nearly seven hundred pages each.

The price of the whole will be $5 per annum payable three months after the delivery of the first number. The English copies cannot be had for less than $30. Three of them are at present reprinted in the London and Edinburgh at $5 each, the Foreign, at $7, connected as it is with other publications.

Companies of six or more will be allowed a deduction of one dollar on each subscriber, if payment be made on the reception of the first number. Any individual procuring five subscribers, and remitting $25, will be allowed an additional copy.

All communications to be addressed (post paid) to Theodore Foster, Albany, N. Y.

Subscribers Names enrolled at the STANDARD Office are forwarded to Mr. Foster.
