

September 25th, 1882.—Capt. Andrews plunged into Toronto Bay, and swam out to the assistance of a young man who was seized with cramps, and was in danger of drowning; he was safely brought to shore. For this Andrews received the Royal Humane Society's bronze clasp and certificate of honor, presented by Mayor McMurrich, in the City Hall, December 18th, 1882, in the presence of a large assembly of people.

May 1st, 1883.—Captain Andrews, in company with Island Constable Ward, organized the Toronto Harbor Life-Saving Crew, to man the life-boat recently transferred from the Harbor Trust to the Dominion Government, under the control of the Minister of Marine. Since its establishment this crew has been instrumental in saving a large number of persons from drowning, which services have been suitably rewarded by the presentation of valuable binocular glasses from the Dominion Government, and medals and clasps from the Royal Humane Society, besides many other life-saving testimonials.

July 27th, 1883.—During a tremendous storm, exceeding in violence anything that has been seen on Toronto Bay for many years, Captain Andrews, in company with William
