VIOLET ELLIOT, Treasurer,
109 Pembroke St. Toronto.

W. B. M. U.

EDITED BY MISS A. E. JOHNSTONE.

MOTTO FOR THE YEAR.—As Thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent thee.

PRAYER TOPIC FOR OCTOBER.—For the officers of our Home and Foreign Mission Board, and of our W. B. M. U., that great grace and wisdom may descend on all, and thus the Kingdom of our Lord be extended this year.

RESPONSIVE READINGS FOR AID SOCIETY MEETINGS FOR OCTOBER.

LEADER.—Be strong all ye people of the land, saith the Lord, and work; for I am with you saith the Lord of Hosts.

ANS.—Behold I cannot speak, for I am a child.

LEADER.—Now therefore go, and I will be with thy mouth and teach thee what thou shalt say.

ANS.—Now thanks be unto God which always leadeth us in triumph in Christ.

LEADER.—Oh! give thanks unto the Lord; call upon His name; make known His deeds among the people.

ANS.—I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation, to every one that believeth.

LEADER.—The night is far spent, the day is at hand, wherefore we labor that whether present or absent we may be accepted of Him.

ANS.—The love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead; and that He died for all that they which live, should not henceforth live unto themselves but unto Him who died for them, and rose again.

The accounts of our annual meeting in "our column" in the Messenger and Visitor have been so full that it is not expedient to repeat them.

Mr. Morse's salary is to be raised by our Bands and Y. P. societies. Sisters of the Union, this work lies before us, to be taken up day by day, to be persevered in. We are pledged to it. Let us go forward in faith. Let us remember no need of our own is so great as the needs of these souls, for whom Christ died.

A sister in sending a parcel for the "Box" to India, says, "Before I was up this morning there was a very decided rapping at the door and on opening it I found a tiny, seven-year-old girl with a large parcel. She eagerly burst forth, 'Oh! I can send it in the box, can't I? I've wanted it ever since Xmas. It was so pretty, but mamma said I had lots. Now I thought perhaps some little heathen girl would want it just as bad. I just had money enough in my box to buy it. It has no clothes, but it is so pretty the heathen girl won't mind.' The 'it' was a large doll. 'She had brought another little girl to make sure that Dollie was safely packed.'"
