GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE VOLUMES.—With the earnest desire to give our patrons the latest and most popular music at the lowest prices, we have commenced the publication of the two volumes mentioned above, and deem this a fitting time to make known not only the great efforts that will be made on our part for the success of the works, but also to give a general outline of the value of future numbers. Your consideration, therefore, of the following is earnestly asked.

As it is the intention to make the volumes standard publications, to be issued from year to year, our best judgment will be given to the selection of the contents—always keeping in view the fact that, to make them acceptable and useful to all, not only the grade, but the pieces themselves must be varied and attractive. The Song Journal will contain not only well-known songs, but judicious selections from the new works of European writers, whose names will be sufficient guarantee of the merits of their compositions. Valuable additions of new and popular songs and ballads, by favorite American writers, will also form a leading attraction.

Social Readings will furnish an unlimited source of enjoyment and profit to all, as the contents will give a varied assortment of the standard and popular works of favorite authors—including pot-pourris of well-known operas, new dance music, and a wealth of the most useful pieces, valuable for teaching and recreation.

The astounding cheapness will be made evident to the most careless observer, as it is our purpose to supply either work at about one-eighth the cost of the same music published in sheet form which, in these times of marvelously low prices, is an argument that careful buyers will not fail to see and appreciate.

The artistic features will consist not only in the use of the best music paper, printing by the most competent workmen, and particularly attractive appearance, but each number will be elegantly illustrated either by the portrait of a musical or artistic celebrity or by a handsome engraving that will fully equal, in retail price, the cost of each number. As a proof of our intention, we confidently ask your examination of the first number of the Song Journal, which contains a remarkably accurate engraving of the celebrated actress, Mlle. Sara Bernhardt; or to the first number of Social Readings, illustrated by a seven-color chromo, which will not fail to obtain the most favorable criticism.

Plan of Subscription.—As buyers of music, like all other purchasers, have confidence in the representations of particular dealers, the two, or either of the volumes, will be found on sale at all the principal music stores in the United States and Canada, at which single copies may be purchased or subscriptions for the year made—a plan which we feel must meet with general approval, inasmuch as it completely does away with the necessity of subscribing or ordering books of which largely displayed advertisements are the only apparent value.

Unabridged.—This, like all other representations made, will be strictly adhered to, as each piece will be complete and exactly the same as when published in the regular sheet music form.

To Avoid Mistakes.—In asking for copies of either volume, be careful to see that the proper books are given you. Fac-similes of the titles are printed above, which will be found a convenient reference in cases of doubt.

Plan of Publication.—As a large percentage of persons are interested chiefly in one class of music—Vocal or Instrumental—the plan of making two distinct works will be more thoroughly appreciated; while, at the same time, it will be equally advantageous to those who purchase both books, as the separation of the two will prove a great convenience.

Time of Issue and Prices.—The Song Journal will be issued on the first of every month. Social Readings on the fifteenth. Each work will contain twelve numbers and will be furnished post-paid, as follows.

PRICE OF EACH, 40 CENTS, NET, POST-PAID.
