

To our Readers.

WE earnestly invite all our present subscribers to renew their subscriptions without delay, and to send us the names of new subscribers. Do not wait to be called upon, but remit in a Registered Letter to Rev. JOHN SHAW, Box 113, Toronto. Any one sending the names of five or more subscribers, with the money, will receive a copy for the year gratis.

WANTED.—We want fifty copies of the September number to complete volumes for binding. Any of our subscribers who do not wish to preserve their volume complete, will greatly oblige by sending us the number in question.

CASES FOR BINDING the Volume for 1873 can be supplied at Twenty-five Cents each, by mail.

THE JANUARY NUMBER will appear with a new title page, and a new tint of paper for the cover.

OUR MAGAZINE.

ONE year ago we sent forth the first number of "Earnest Christianity" as an experiment. The response we received was so kind and cordial that we resolved to continue the publication for a year. The result has justified the conviction that such a publication was needed and desired; and we now place "Earnest Christianity" among the permanent publications of the Church.

The grand object of our Magazine—"the revival of religion, and the spread of Scriptural holiness"—will continue unchanged; and this, we are confident, will command the sympathy of the great bulk of our people, who still love the "old paths," and desire to "walk therein." Whether we shall be able to render efficient aid in so desirable a work will depend chiefly on two things,—the circulation we can secure, and the extent to which we can imbue our publication with the spirit of the old Methodist doctrines. For the first of these results we depend, instrumentally, upon the kind co-opera-
