Corn and Provisions

Dull and Lower.

Chicago, Nov. 7.

The strong opening of this market was due to the threatening aspect of affairs between France and England. As on its morits wheat should not be dear at present figures, the chances of a profit by buying are good and in the event of war, cereals would advance materially as stocks are low all over the Continent.

AFTERNOON BOARD.

Contrary to general rules the afternoon session was much more interesting than the early one, but the chief excitement was in War Eagle which treated its friends to a veritable boom. That this should eventuate was but a matter of time, instead of waiting further developments buyers rushed in and now that the stock has crossed the $3 mark a stronger and more active business will result.

Renewed talk of the doubling of the dividend was the cause of the

the dividend was the cause of the rapid advance.

Canadian Pacific exhibited more life also, selling up to 82½, it eased off slightly however at the close.

Montreal Gas also gained ground the balance of the list closing at a fairly good basis. fairly good basis.
