Flotsam and Jetsam.

WE learn from the Albany Law Journal that there is more truth than poetry in the current story about a negro prisoner in Missouri who, when asked, "Are there any more jurymen who have a prejudice against you?" replied, "No, sah; de jury am all right, but I want to challenge the judge."

ACCORDING to a London newspaper, a cow that wore a bell having been run over and killed on the railway, the owner brought a suit against the railway company for damages. It was proved that the driver blew the whistle loudly, and tried to frighten the cow off the track. But the farmer's lawyer also proved that the cow rang her bell and tried to frighten the engine off the track, and so the jury decided in his favour.
