ARCHDIOCESE OF TORONTO.

St. Michael's.

On Sunday last His Groot the Archbishop was present at the Cathedral. Solemn High Mass was celebrated. After the Goopel His Grace solemnly blessed the statue of St. Michael which is placed over the altar, and also the electric lights. He then explained to the people the nature of the blessing of the statue of St. Michael. The Church sanctions the blessing of plous objects to help our devotion and increase our piety towards God, His Angels, and His Saints. St. Michael is the patron angel of St. Michael. Church, and also of the Diocess of Toronto, and therefore his statue was blessed and placed in a permanent pesition on the situe remind the people of the example of faithfulness in the service of God, which is illustrated in his life.
